Blackfriars Plan Drama; New Director Appointed

The Blackfriars are planning a mid-December production of Winterset by Maxwell Anderson. Professor Albert Rights of Lehigh University is the new director.

Winterset grew out of a labor brawl in Western Mass. It is a story of the Socco-Venzetti case. Both men were blamed for the bombing and rioting that took place. After their execution the people felt that these men were innocent and had nothing to do with the rioting.

Bartholomew, the son of one of the executed, tried to clear his father's name. Meanwhile he fell in love with a beautiful girl called Miriomme. While trying to clear his father's name, Bartholomew was killed. It was later discovered that a man named Trock was the one responsible for the rioting and bombing that had taken place.

Modern Romance

Winterset is a sequel to Anderson's God's in the Lightning. Winterset is a modern romance which Anderson tried to pattern after Romeo and Juliet. The cast in Winterset includes 22 characters.

Contest Plans Formed For '59 Manuscript

Plans for a more inclusive and more exciting college literary magazine were made at a meeting of the editorial board of the Manuscript last Thursday afternoon.

In addition to its annual contest and prizes for original writing, this year the Manuscript plans to sponsor an art and photography contest. Details will be announced soon by the editor, Mary Vezzoli.

The magazine, which is scheduled to be published on May 1, 1959, will be larger than in former years and will include material from all fields of student creativity. Research papers, book reviews, art, photography, humor, outstanding newspaper editorials, and feature stories will all come under the heading of Manuscript material.

In thus broadening the scope of the magazine, the editors hope to obtain a representative view of what the student body is writing and thinking.

ALBERT RIGHTS

Mr. Rights, the new director, is an Associate Professor of English at Lehigh University. In the past he has headed musical productions put on at Lehigh. He worked on Broadway for Norman Bel Geddes during the 1930's. This past year he also was in charge of the Catholic Youth Passion Play that was produced by the Catholic youth of Bethlehem.

Monday Jazz Show Features Freshmen, Brubeck, Ferguson

An all-star jazz concert, featuring the Four Freshmen, Dave Brubeck, Maynard Ferguson, and Sonny Rollins, will be the center of attraction in the Lehigh Valley Monday night. The big show, sponsored by A. J. Perry ("Makes Them All Happy"), kicks off at 8:30 at the Agricultural Hall of the Allentown Fair Grounds.

General admission tickets are on sale for $1.25 and reserved

Dave Brubeck seats for $2.25. Advance tickets are being sold at Huff's Music Store and The Spinning Disc record shop in Bethlehem.

Group On Tour

The entire group is on tour with the third annual Jazz for Moderns Concert tour.

Brubeck and his quintet featuring Paul Desmond on the sax, according to a recent release, have won more top honors in the contemporary jazz field than any other group in America.

The show will be emceed by Leonard Feather, celebrated jazz critic, and author of The Encyclopedia of Jazz.

YEARBOOK PICTURES

Organization pictures for the 1959 Benigna will be taken during the next few weeks. A schedule of exact times and locations will be posted on the bulletin boards.

Family Day Cards To Be Returned By November 8

Approximate 70 reservations for the Family Day luncheon had been received by the Triangle Honor Society by Tuesday of this week, according to Pete French, Triangle president. The return reservation cards are due Nov. 8.

Letters were mailed to the families of all students last week, French said, giving details of the special day, Nov. 15, and requesting that the enclosed cards be returned if luncheon reservations are desired.

An additional item for Family Day, completed this week, is a plan for a coffee hour in Johnston Hall immediately after the Moravian-Wagner game. The coffee hour will be sponsored by an alumni group which will be assisted by members of the Women's Activities Committee.

Dormitories and fraternity houses will not have to prepare refreshments for the post-game open houses, French said.

Guests for Family Day will register in the lobby of Johnston Hall on the morning of Saturday, Nov. 15. There they will receive name tags and tickets for the luncheon and football game.

The luncheon tickets will cost $1.00. Guests and day students will purchase their tickets at that time. Dormitory students will receive free tickets for themselves prior to Family Day. Tickets for the football game will be free.

Free tickets will be available for the Audubon Screen Tour.

College Assumes Expenses Of Choir; Band Gets $1,000

As the result of an amendment passed at a regular meeting of United Student Government, held Tuesday night, the Moravian College band will receive $1,001.10 from USG funds to finance its expenditures for the remainder of the school year.

Football Trophy

The above amount was amended to an original motion from a previous meeting to allocate $2,000 to the music board. The college administration has agreed to finance the expenses of the choir, thereby relieving such burden from the treasury of USG.

Plans were made this week by the band to attend the last two away games at Albright and Upsala.

In a letter received recently by USG from Upsala College, a plan was outlined to institute a rivalry between that institution and Moravian in the form of a trophy to be held for one year by the winner of the annual football game. A motion was made to that effect and passed. A set of rules governing the trophy set up by the Upsala College group was read to the group by USG president Prorok.

In other old business, a motion was passed allocating $200 of USG funds for the support of the school mascot. The dog will be placed under the care of Dr. and Mrs. J. Richard Jones, who are professional dog trainers.

A motion was made by Alan Bergstein to rescind the committee which had been formed previously for purposes of investigating and revising, if necessary, the present constitution of the student body. The motion was defeated.

I-F Names Gray; Holmes Orchestra To Play At Dance

Robert Gray has been elected by the Inter-Fraternity Council to replace Nick Nofa as president of the group. Nofa resigned due to a lack of sufficient time to devote to the job.

The band of Les Holmes will play for the I-F Dance, which will be held at the Bethlehem Masonic Temple.

The council is presently making plans for the I-F weekend of November 22-23. The fraternities will be asked to decorate their houses, and a prize will be awarded for the best decorations. Other I-F council prizes will also be awarded during the weekend.

Gray is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, president of the junior class, and a member of the Political Activities Club. He also serves as head waiter in the North Campus dining hall.

PAC Candidates Meeting Enlivened By Partisan Views Of Opponents

by Ted Rights

Fifteen candidates for various state and local offices were present at the candidates night sponsored by the Bethlehem League of Women Voters and the Political Activities Club (PAC) held on Monday, October 27. The meeting took place in Johnston Hall, rooms 9 and 10.

Resident of Bethlehem, members of the Women's League, PAC, supporters of various candidates, and members of Bethlehem Lions and Rotary Clubs conversed over coffee with State Senate and General Assembly aspirants and General Assembly nominees.

Among those who attended were Henry Ragot (R), Fred B. Rooney (D), James A. O'Donnell (D), and C. Earl Garland (R). Also present were eight of the nine candidates for the non-partisan city charter study commission: John J. Bartos, Charles J. Danchee, Atty. William B. Joachim and Thomas E. Butterfield, Jr. and Anthony J. Kisch, Mrs. Elaine H. Meilicke, Lawrence A. Ransel, and Harry Margolis. Three sponsored by Democratic interests, Francis W. Bucchin, Barbara Attemue, and Atty. James A. Diefenderfer also attended.

Dr. Otis Shao, assistant professor of government, acting as master of ceremonies, introduced the candidates and explained the purpose of the meeting. Shao directed attention to a "clothes line exhibit" giving information about each of the 22 candidates, the proposed amendment to the State Constitution, and the possibility of getting a new charter for the city. A voter's guide, official election notices, and sample ballots were also part of the display.

When questioned it appeared that Rooney and Ragot were furthest at odds over the issue of a complete revision of the state constitution.

Hi-Fi Room Contest of WAC Runs Through This Weekend

The Women's Activities Committee (WAC) is sponsoring a contest to name the new Hi-Fi Room on South Campus. All Moravian students may enter the contest as often as they wish either by clipping the entry blank out of the Comenian or by copying it over on another piece of paper.

Each entry must contain the entrant's name, where he can be reached, and his name for the room.

Janice Steers and Dora Thomas, who are in charge of the contest, announced that it will run from Friday, Oct. 3, through Monday, Nov. 3. Entries should be placed in the designated boxes in the lobby of Comenius Hall or in the Hi-Fi Room.

The winner of the contest will be chosen by the WAC at its meeting on Monday afternoon. The

by Nan Ginger

Now that BLEARY EYES and WEAK KNEES are a thing of the past, we can all settle down to a cold winter's nap and STUDY. Of course, everyone knows that mid-term isn't until November 8, but that doesn't seem to have affected the QUIZ SCHEDULE. The unpublished run-down for testing is this: hour quizzes shall be called (1) at least two days after classes begin in September; (2) preferably once per week; (3) a BIG quizzie during the pre-Homecoming period; (4) another BIG quizzie in the post-Homecoming period; and other sundry ideal quiz times.

A few general rules for quizzing include not giving more than one day's notice, and being sure that three or four tests are scheduled previous too ALL big weekends, whether they're Mo weekends or not . . .

Back to Homecoming. Congratulations to all float and house decorations winners! Have heard it said that this year's displays were bigger and better than ever. Of course, there are always a few who are "unpleased" at contest results, but you can't please everybody.

Even with the dreary weather and game results, it was GOOD. And the dance, with its unusual combinations of people and gushing alumni, was greatest, even though we did need a policeman for protection. (?)

More congratulations go to SOMEBODY for getting a director for the Blackfriars at last! No one's quite sure how this miracle happened, but all old-guard groups and new enthusiasts are RATHER GLEEFUL, DAHLING.

The fall production is Winter-set, and anyone interested in backstage or make-up work is requested to CHARGE over to the Arts Building anytime. Who knows? Perhaps this great revival will start a new Bohemian trend on campus. Dig out the espresso cups gang, there's work to be done . . .

Read in Max Shulman's "How Green Was My Campus" the other day. His idea of appropriate nicknames for administrative heads: president, PREXY; dean, DOXY; registrar, ROXY; comptroller, COXY, and the students? ALGAE.

Gentle reminder for all OF AGE algae: don't forget to sneak out and VOTE next Tuesday. After all, this is one MAJOR privilege you can't take advantage of every day, like some of the others. (Ever notice that MINORS shouldn't operate cigaret machines?) So exercise your RITE . . . uh, I mean RIGHT. Right?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"DID ANY OF YOU HAPPEN TO FIND THAT BOTTLE OF ALCOHOL THAT WAS MISPLACED YESTERDAY?"

A Many-Ringed Circus . . .

Insults, personality clashes, and time-wasting arguments over technical trifles have turned each of the recent United Student Government meetings into a disgusting, deplorable, and ridiculous "circus." The atmosphere is more one of personal persecution than of efficient and cooperative efforts to deal with matters of a student government supposedly operating under a democratic system.

Lately, what would ordinarily be perhaps thirty-minute meetings have been stretched into hour and hour-and-a-half long meetings, simply by stupid, unnecessary bickering. A certain few antagonists are consistent in their ability to tie up meetings with the legal, but questionable, overuse of Robert's Rules of Order.

The situation may have arisen from the fact that the present leaders on campus too often feel a tendency to overstep their power and encroach on the administrative territory of other groups, in this case, the presidency of USG. Jealousy, hate, or one's own desire to be "king of the campus" cannot rightfully belong in such an organization as USG without defeating its whole purpose.

A Big Improvement . . .

It's good to walk into the Emsee these days and see an empty seat or two—a big difference from the way it was a year ago. It's not that business has dropped off in the Emsee, but that the conversion of the old lounge into an extension of the college store has made possible better accommodations for the ever increasing number of customers.

There was a time when you could not even get to the counter without wading through a crowd of people three deep. Then finally when you got what you wanted, you looked around and couldn't find a place to sit. It was hardly worth the effort.

Now the one-time overflow of students can be accommodated in the extra room without any trouble. Of course, there are still times when the Emsee is crowded, but, on the whole, the situation seems to have been greatly alleviated.

As a temporary relief before the student center is erected, the expansion seems to have served its purpose, and we heartily commend "King Lear" and all others responsible..

Professional Care . . .

We're glad to see that something is finally being done and being done right about the care of the school's mascot, OGO. Up until now the dog has been confined to a small kennel on campus, with little concern shown for him.

Thanks to Dr. and Mrs. Jones, who are professionals in raising and training dogs, the greyhound will now receive the care he requires.

Integration Issues Hit Stride In South's College Papers

(ACP)—Integration of schools got much attention in the college press these first few weeks of school.

Editors of Critograph, Lynchburg, Va., college, criticize their state government for closing schools which are under federal integration orders.

"What do the so-called leaders of this state hope to gain by closing schools in order to defy the federal government? The Byrdmen admit that the closings will only postpone the inevitable and that the state has not one leg to stand on in a federal court . . ."

"The high school students without high schools know who is on the losing end of this deal. Students in Warren county high school and Charlottesville are feeling the effects of Virginia's bull-headed segregation stand. Students in Little Rock, Arkansas are feeling the effects of their governor's wild bid for power and prestige."

Critograph ends the editorial with a quote from the Raleigh, N. C., News And Observer: "Closing down the schools is something beyond secession from the Union; it is secession from civilization."

Louisiana State University's Daily Reveille notes "opposition to school closing is coming from parents who realize that the education of their children is more important than segregation. And, it is time state officials in Arkansas and Virginia also realize this factor, for it is questionable whether the courts will uphold the public-private school system."

The day after the above Reveille comment appeared, the paper ran this letter from reader Brent Calongne:

"Congratulations to students of LSUNO. You are doing a fine job. Just sit back calmly and let them shove the Negroes down your throats. It would be terrible to oppose it. After all, the opinion of nine men is far more important than the opinion of the majority of 170,000,000 people.

"The previous paragraph is an exaggerated example of the one-sided view that the majority of our paper's editors take when writing editorials. Since the beginning of summer semester, many articles favoring integration have appeared in . . . our paper . . ."

"The purpose of this letter is to present a little of the other side for a change . . ."

"Some of us say that we wouldn't mind if Negroes just attended our classes. The damage from this alone would be terrific. In Washington D. C., white students are retarded tremendously because of integrated classes. In a national test given in one school, white students averaged 98 while Negro students with the same educational facilities averaged only 51 . . ."

"When forced integration starts in our school, home town and state, we've got to fight it. It's our job, no one else's. If everyone put up resistance, regardless of how little, the nine kings of our supreme Court would have no other alternative than to give in."

Group Attends 9th Annual Pre-Med Confab Tomorrow

Eighteen students and three members of the faculty will represent Moravian College at the Ninth Annual Eastern Pennsylvania Pre-medical Conference to be held at the University of Pennsylvania, on Saturday, November 1.

The conference is sponsored by the Alpha Epsilon Delta premedical fraternity of LaSalle College in Philadelphia. The eighteen Moravian students attending are pre-medical and pre-dent students and the faculty members are Mr. Kenneth Bergstresser, Dr. Albert E. H. Gaumer, and Mrs. James Griffith.

Med School Tour

The group will leave from the North Campus Science Building at 6:45 a.m. on Saturday. Upon arrival in Philadelphia the conference delegates will be taken on a tour of the Medical School facilities at the University of Pennsylvania and also on a tour of either the University Hospital, Philadelphia General Hospital, or Veterans Administration Hospital, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

Following the tours there will be a medical motion picture shown in the School of Medicine Building.

Panel Symposium

Luncheon will be served to the delegates at 1 p.m. At 12 p.m. there will be an informal symposium on premedical and pre-dental education in the Medical Alumni Hall of the University Hospital. The panel will be composed of representatives of five Philadelphia schools. There will be a physician and a dentist from the University of Pennsylvania; a physician and a dentist from Temple University; a physician from Hahneman Medical Center; a physician from Jefferson Medical Center; and a physician from the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia.

The symposium members will discuss the phases of medical and dental education, requirements and related topics, after which they will answer questions from the floor.

Moravian has been represented at this conference every year since its inauguration in 1949.

Placement News

The Placement Office is making every effort to schedule as many campus interviews as possible. However, many companies who are interested in contacting students do not schedule interviews on campus. The Placement Office will continue to furnish the names of these companies as we receive them.

Publications describing job opportunities have been received from The Bethlehem Steel Company, Abraham and Strauss, and Armstrong Cork Company. They have been placed in Dean Gillespie's Office and in the Library.

Two copies of the 1959 College Placement Annual are now in the Library. This publication presents the occupational needs normally anticipated by more than 1600 employers as well as a number of excellent articles written especially for the student who will seek employment after graduation.

We would suggest that everyone who is interested in job interviews should read "The Interview: X Minus One" by Dr. R. F. Menke, Director of Placement at Arizona State University. Additional copies of the annual may be found in Dean Gillespie's office in Johnston Hall.

Constitution Debated . . .

Rooney stated, "I am definitely in favor of a constitutional reform. Because of the size of Pennsylvania we should have annual legislative sessions instead of bi-annual sessions. I am in favor of dropping the voting age to 18 years. I think the governor should have the right to succeed himself in office. I don't think any governor can complete his program in a period of four years, with only

Report Suggests End Of Required Military Service

The present system of compulsory military service for all eligible males in the United States is discriminatory, inadequate and unnecessary. This conclusion is reached in a report by Washington attorney John Graham, recently published by the Fund for the Republic in a pamphlet titled: "The Universal Military Obligation."

Sixty Methods

The survey analyzes the 60 methods by which a young man may fulfill his military obligation. These include active duty and reserve training or combinations of both.

Describing the numerous ways men obtain deferments and exemptions, the pamphlet asserts that "when their total impact is to excuse more than half of all men in the eligible age group from any form of military service, the whole becomes more than the sum of its parts."

Moreover, the report suggests, the onset of nuclear and technological warfare will call for highly-trained, experienced specialists, rather than massive combat forces.

Existence Necessary?

The author concludes that the United States is not exacting a universal military obligation, that we do not need to exact one and that "the proper question for free men is not whether conscription can be administered equitably, but whether it need exist at all."

Free copies of "The Universal Military Obligation" may be obtained by writing to the Fund for the Republic, 60 E. 42nd Street, New York 17, New York.

two legislative sessions. Ragot replied, "Complete revision of the constitution is not advisable. Too costly. It would cost an estimated $750,000. I recommend amending as times change and as necessity requires. I favor increasing the borrowing limit above one million dollars. Authority borrowing is too expensive with no elective control. I favor compelling the legislature to re-apportion senatorial and representative districts every ten years."

Members of the audience also asked these candidates how they hoped to finance the state government and how they regarded the present educational system.

The candidates for the Bethlehem charter commission were questioned as to whether or not they had studied any information about the forms of city government, and what their feeling was concerning these various forms. Few of the candidates had a set opinion as to which of the types of city government would be best, and several admitted that they were as yet uninformed on the subject.

In speaking of the meeting, Ragot stated that, "There should be more gatherings like this so we can get the ideas of the people we're supposed to take with us to Harrisburg."

Rooney said "It was a pleasure to talk informally for a change."

Ann Sothern Gives Views Of American Hotel Humor

The lengths to which actors and actresses will go to add authenticity to their performances are nothing short of amazing. One Western star has redone his entire home Texas-style, complete with iron triangle on the porch to announce chow.

A noted Shakespearean actor refuses to read contemporary books while appearing in a play, lest their English throw his Elizabethan frame of mind out of kilter.

Actress Ann Sothern, preparing for a new TV role as an assistant hotel manager, has toured the country to get the feel of hotel life, talking to managers, bellhops, maids, waiters.

"They're the most patient people in the world," Miss Sothern says, "and deserve a lot more recognition than they've been getting. And what a lot of fun they are!"

ANN SOTHERN

In the course of her research, Ann has run across a lot of gags based on hotel life. But, as she says, "A joke is nothing until it has audience." So she graciously passes on a dozen of her favorites herewith.

An obviously well-fed gentleman ate a fine meal at a posh Texas hotel, capped it with some rare Napoleon brandy, then raised a pudgy finger to the headwaiter. All attention, the headwaiter listened.

"I wonder if you remember," the man asked, "how I enjoyed just such a meal last year and, because I couldn't pay for it, you had me thrown out like a run-of-the-mill bum?"

Flustered, the headwaiter said, "I'm terribly sorry, sir." "Perfectly all right," smiled the gentleman, fingering a cigar, "but I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you again."

Anxious to impress his friend, the Los Angeles real estate man boasted, "I just got a penthouse for my wife."

"Good deal!" exclaimed his pal, "—where can I make a trade like that?"

The American couple had decided to see something of the world. One of the stops in their journey was a small inn in rural France. To facilitate their movements, the husband sent their bags ahead.

When they arrived, the manager—proud of the few English words he knew—showed them that he had already registered them, taking their names from the luggage. Sure enough, in a fine Spencerian hand, there they were: "Mr. and Mrs. Genuine Cowhide."

It happened in a Tulsa Hotel. A shapely blonde, slinking her way through the lobby, ignored all the admiring stares until she encountered the town's Number One oil driller. Suddenly, she was all smiles. "How much did you say your name was?" she inquired coyly.

Sign in an old Pittsburgh hotel: "Notify us if you see a mouse in your room. We'll send up the cat."

The secretary had pinched pennies for three years just to be able to afford the luxury of spending two weeks at a plush New England ski lodge.

First morning there, she complained to the manager that twice during the night she had had to dress and go to the lobby for some water. "But why didn't you simply press the buzzer?" he asked. "The buzzer!" she cried. "The bellboy told me that was the fire alarm!"

There's a Miami hotel that's so exclusive, rumor has it, that guests have to pretend to be hired help.

The salesman remembered seeing the same sign over the door a year ago: "Out of Order."

"Don't you ever fix the elevator?" he asked.

"Shucks," replied the hotel

Johnston Hall Dedicated At Founders Day Convo

Johnston Hall was officially named and dedicated at the annual Moravian College Founder's Day Convocation October 23. The Convocation was opened by a full academic procession. Chaplain Lewis led the student body and guests in the scripture reading and opening prayer. Bachelor Degrees were presented to twelve graduating seniors.

President Hauptert then presented the Honorary Degree Doctor of Laws to William Lawrence Estes, Jr., President of the American College of Surgeons, and Trustee of Lehigh University; Arthur Bartlett Homer, President of Bethlehem Steel Corporation and Trustee of Brown University; and Jesse Vernon Honeycutt, Vice-President in charge of Sales and Director of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Trustee of Catawba College, and Trustee of Moravian College.

Degrees were: Charles Gunkle, Bruce Mumie, Hatsuko Ono, Paula Seyer, Francis Toner, and John Walker. Those receiving their Bachelor of Science Degrees were: Merrit Pearson, Barry Wentz, and Warren Ziegenfuss III. James Yenser, Joanne Boyer, and Michael Ripic.

President Hauptert, Mayor Earl E. Schaffer, and Dr. F. P. Stocker, Chairman of the Board of Trustees took part in the dedication and naming of Archibald Johnston Hall. The convocation was led in a litany of dedication by President Hauptert. Chaplain Lewis pronounced the benediction, and the Convocation was closed by the singing of the Alma Mater.

Carol Landrock, Queen Of Big Weekend; OGO's, Tekes Take Float, House Prizes

by Ted Rights

Homecoming for the year 1958, despite a soggy Saturday and a sad showing on the football field was a success, at least in the light of last year's debacle. High spots of the big weekend were Friday's homecoming parade, frosh and all, and the dance on Saturday night.

Omicron Gamma Omega, with the tall man which is slowly becoming their trademark, walked off with first prize in the float contest, not, however, without spirited opposition.

Phi Mu Sorority, carting a large modern telephone on its wagon preceded by two old fashioned telephones on foot, so ably carried out the parade's theme of progress that they received second prize.

Not far behind in the running was a huge ship constructed by the Vet's which was doing an expert job of crushing the ancient bark of Lebanon Valley. Too bad we couldn't do as well in the game.

House Decorations

As for the dorm and house decorations, Teke house stuck closest to the theme to take first prize. Seems the judges just didn't care whether or not those physics formulas in the display were correct.

Colonial Hall, with an elaborate set of decorations, including everything from a graveyard to Frankenstein or some such monster, beat out Main Hall, Wright brothers or no right, brothers.

The pajama garbed frosh made up for it by serenading the girls with the Alma Mater in traditional Moravian fashion. But where was the water, girls? A few water filled balloons but wouldn't buckets and buckets of water might be better.

Queen's Court

And Homecoming Queen Carol Landrock topped a list of five beauties — not a single one of whom was a senior! That's a shame. Not that we would want to take anything away from Mary Lou Clewell, Ruth Mauch, Judy DeBray, and Joannie Albrecht, the other girls who qualified as finalists.

Matt Gillespie and his band turned in a fine performance at the dance as usual. And praise should go to the Social Activities Committee for their fine job of decorating "Archie's Hall." They helped to make a perfect ending to an almost perfect weekend.

The Benchwarmer

by Neil Eskolin

What gives with Mo-Mo's football and crosscountry teams? They'd both better start taking a good look at themselves, make the greatly needed alterations, and get on the ball or they are going to find themselves the owners of the sickliest records in many a year. Sports have really been picking up at Moravian in the past several years, so let's not get back to the place where we're known as the "easy pushovers." Neither the football nor the Harrier squad is a team that should be showing so poorly.

The Gridders have great potential as they showed against Wilkes in the opener. It's not that they're a bunch of rookies. The team boasts of 14 lettermen, not an over-abundance, but certainly enough, including a completely veteran line and three out of four veteran backfield starters. Now there's absolutely no reason for the showing the gridders have made so far this year. Granted, Juniata is a tough team and PMC has shown well this year, but they were both able to be defeated and Moravian had the team to do it. But they just didn't have it in the clutch, especially against PMC.

Last Saturday's game was nearly a total disgrace. In the first place, there was practically no spirit. Of course the weather can take a small part of the blame, but nevertheless there should have been more spirit. The only bright part of the afternoon was the colossal kicking of George Hollendersky who, incidentally, saved the Hounds from a worse shellacking than they received. It can be admitted also that Lebanon Valley had a good team but certainly not good enough to limit the Hounds to a total of 91 yards.

Now let's take a look at the cross country scene. The hill and daler's also started off the season with a bang but since then they've been nothing to write home about. Here too there is a great deal of spirit lacking. With the exception of Wendy Terry, who has just about single handedly held the squad together, they have looked terrible. It must also be admitted here that they have faced tough teams but with more spirit and the will to win, they would have made a better showing. They may not have won, but they would at least have been close.

Last Saturday's race was better than the previous showings, but just that little extra push might have made the difference. It seems that a face that showed up near the head of the line each race last year is painfully missing among the leaders this season.

It's not too late to salvage the season for both sports and still come out with winning records as we're accustomed to but it certainly won't happen unless the squads snap out of it. Come on gang, let's get going and show'em that we're from Mo-Mo and we're gonna win!!!

See ya on the bench.

FALL FOCUS

Fred Lipari

This week's focus falls upon Fred Lipari who hails from Easton, Pa. Fred, a junior, is 22 years old, 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 200 pounds, and is starting center on this year's Greyhound team.

He started his football career at Wilson Borough High School where he played four years of football, being Captain in his senior year, four years of track, and two of basketball. Upon graduation, Fred entered Uncle Sam's Army for two years. During his stay he played football one year in England.

After his military obligation, Fred entered Kutztown State Teachers College where he attended one semester as a freshman. He then entered Moravian. As a student at Mo Mo, Fred is majoring in history.

His extra curricular activities are: a member of the OGO fraternity, Varsity M Club; Secretary and treasurer of the Fraternity Council, and a member of the Veteran Organization. His hobbies and interests pertain to photography and cooking.

Basketball Outlook Seen Exciting, Unpredictable

Unpredictable and exciting is the outlook for the 1958-59 collegiate basketball season as previewed by the nation's top writers in the 63rd annual NCAA Official Basketball Guide, first of the national cage publications off press.

"Come-and-get-it title scrambles in nearly every conference promise more uncertainty and excitement than ever," according to Herb Good of The Philadelphia Inquirer, president of the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

"The new season has been made even more unpredictable than usual," Good writes, "with the departure of two dominant individuals, who by the very nature of their remarkable abilities and imposing physical assets, held the few positive factors in the hollows of their hands." He refers, of course, to Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of Kansas and Elgin Baylor of Seattle, both of whom signed pro contracts.

You also find in the Guide that their defection clears the field for Cincinnati's "Big O," Oscar Robertson, to upset precedent by becoming the first junior in history to win the national scoring championship twice. Homer F. Cooke, Jr., NCAA Service Bureau director, points out that the other double-winners—DePaul's George Mikan and Furman's Frank Selvy and Darrell Floyd—each won his second crown as a senior.

The authoritative 240-page Guide contains the official basketball rules, 1959 schedules, 1958 results and standings, team and individual statistics and records, the consensus All-America, a tournament round-up, and includes results of 45 state high school tournaments, a selection of top action pictures, and other features.

Distributed only through franchised dealers, the Official Basketball Guide is available locally at Bethlehem Sporting Goods, 4th & Broadway, Bethlehem, recently appointed headquarters here for collegiate sports publications.

The Guide's corps of casaba experts, sees these top contenders by section.

East—St. Joseph's (Phila.), St. John's, St. Bonaventure, NYU, Dartmouth, Manhattan, Pittsburgh, and St. Francis.

South—Auburn, Mississippi State, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia Tech in the Southeastern Conference; West Virginia and George Washington in the Southern; Maryland, North Carolina and North Carolina State in the Atlantic Coast.

Middle West—Michigan State, Purdue, and Northwestern in the Big Ten; Miami (O.), Marshall and Bowling Green in the Mid-American; Notre Dame (whose Tom Harkins is on the cover,) Marquette and Dayton among independents.

Missouri Valley—Kansas State, newcomer Oklahoma State and Oklahoma and possibly Iowa State in the Big Eight; Cincinnati, Bradley and St. Louis in the Missouri Valley, and Oklahoma City among independents.

Southwest—Texas Tech and TCU in the Southwest Conference; Texas Western and Hardin-Simmons in the Border.

Rocky-Mountains—Utah, BYU and Wyoming in the Skyline, Idaho State as usual in the Rocky Mountain.

Pacific Coast—Washington, California, USC and possibly Stanford or UCLA in the PCC; St. Mary's, USF, Pepperdine and College of the Pacific in the West Coast; and Baylor—less Seattle among the independents.

Grapplers And Indoor Track Start Monday

Wrestling and indoor track coach, Paul Kuklentz, announced this week that all candidates for these two winter sports are requested to report for issuance of equipment on Monday, November 3, at 4:00 p.m. in Johnston Hall. All upperclassmen will receive physical examinations on this date in the trainer's room. Practice sessions will start on Tuesday, November 4.

Kuklentz also announced that all football squad members desiring to participate in either sport are requested to report at the conclusion of their season. However, these men are requested to contract Coach Kuklentz of their intention to join the squad.

Hounds Face Albright In An Away Game

A shakeup in playing personnel is definitely on the fire as the Moravian football squad travels to Reading to face the Albright Lions tomorrow.

The Lions seem to be in virtually the same position as the Hounds as far as comparative records are concerned. Albright has compiled a 1-3-1 record but they held Lebanon Valley to a 14-14 tie. Of course, the Hounds were on the short end of a 14-0 score last Saturday against these same Dutchmen, but they also have a 1-3 won-lost record.

Freshmen that might see more than limited action are Gene Cowell, end; Dan Turner and John Yelovich, halfbacks; and Russ Devore, quarterback. Bill Leicht, sophomore guard might also be pushing the first stringers for a berth.

The likely starting lineup for the Lions will be; Sheeler and Lynch, ends; Seighman and Reagan, tackles; Doremus and Mayer, guards; LoSapio, center; Sudock, quarterback; Verano and Matto, halfbacks; and Bricker, fullback.

Irish, OGO's, Upsetters Win I-M Contests

Intramural football action continued last week as the Fighting Irish, OGO's and the Upsetters picked up victories.

Last Tuesday the Fighting Irish broke into the win column by defeating the Vets 18-0. Bill Gaughan spearheaded the Irish attack by throwing three T.D. passes. Gaughan connected twice to Ned Wanger and once to Tony Heiser in the end zone.

The Vets were unable to get their offense moving against the strong Irish forward wall, who played an outstanding game.

Last Wednesday, in the driving rain, the OGO's blanked the Frosh 12-0. OGO quarterback, Gene Jani, scored both T.D.'s on runs of 30 and 5 yards respectively behind the blocking of Rod Miller and Joe Flizar.

The Frosh several times had marched down field towards pay dirt only to be stopped short by the tight OGO defense, which has allowed only two points to be scored against them in two games.

The final game of last week's action was also played under inclement conditions. The TKE's dropped a heartbreaker to the Upsetters by the score of 2-0. The safety was scored in the closing minutes of the game when Bob Volko was trapped in his own end zone for the two points.

3 Ex-MC Diamondmen On Way To Pro Careers

by Russ Simonetta

When the spring semester rolls around, Moravian College students will be back in the classrooms satisfying their craving for knowledge, that is, all of the students except the Van Natta brothers, Jim and Jack. Spring semester to them means back to work and reporting to Jacksonville Beach, Florida for spring training with the minor league players of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

Jim and Jack spent last baseball season, their first season in organized baseball, with the San Angelo Pirates of the Class D Sophomore League. The Pirates, of San Angelo, Texas, were one of the six teams of the league composed of three teams from Texas and three from New Mexico.

Jack, a great hustler, was the team's catcher and many times he teamed up with his brother Jim, a pitcher, to give their team a strong brother battery. Jack had a batting average of .267 including one homer and 40 RBI's in the 120 game schedule. Jack's performance earned him a berth on the Texas All-Star team which played the New Mexico All-Star team.

12-7 Record

Jim had 12 wins and 7 losses for the year, including two shut-outs and a one-hitter. He pitched the one hitter against the Artesia (N. Mex.) Gaints, allowing a flux single in the eighth inning. Jim pitched mainly in relief at the end of the season.

Both Jim and Jack find professional baseball a tough grind and a true test of their abilities. They find the Pirates organization to be teachers of the fundamentals of the game with able instructors to carry out their program.

Jack, a second semester sophomore, is a member of Omicron Gamma Omega fraternity. He played baseball and football as a freshman; he also played the trumpet in the band and participated in the intramural program. Jack had a sensational freshman year in baseball, hitting .386 including five homers and 35 RBI's as the Greyhounds compiled a 17 win 4 loss campaign.

Jim, a first semester junior, belongs to Sigma Phi Omega fraternity. He played varsity basketball and baseball with identical records of 7 wins and 2 losses in both freshman and sophomore years as a Moravian pitching star.

14-6 With Cards

Rollie Passaro, a member of Moravian's '57 ball club with the Van Natta brothers, also played in the minor leagues last year for the first time. Rollie, a '57 graduate of Moravian, signed a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals. Rollie spent this past season with Winston-Salem Class B Cardinal Farm Club. He compiled a record of 14 wins and 6 losses with a run average of 2.97.

Now In Florida

Rollie recently left for the Florida Winter League. He was assigned to Omaha, the St. Louis Cardinal farm club. In the opening game against Tampa, he shared no-hit honors with two other pitchers, as his team won 2-1. In pitching the middle three frames, Rollie gave up no hits, walked two, and fanned six.

In the spring, Rollie plans to report to rookie school and spring training with the Cardinals. As a Moravian College pitcher, he com-

Secs Club Elects Fran Becker Prexy At Opening Meeting

At an organizational meeting on October 9, Frances Becker was elected president of the Business-Secretarial Club. Also elected to positions were Joan Wadolny, secretary, and Suzanne Marshall, treasurer.

Miss Becker is a sophomore business education major and graduated from Hellertown High School. She was a member of the women's sophomore hazing committee this year. Miss Wadolny, who graduated from Bethlehem's Liberty High but is from Hellertown, is a sophomore in the four-year business secretarial course. Miss Marshall, from Bethlehem, also graduated from Liberty High. She is a freshman two-year secretarial student.

Miss Florence Bradley and Miss Mary Gehres of the business department are advisers to the organization.

The club held its first social of the year in the form of a picnic last Friday afternoon at Monacacy Park.

Greyhound tackle, Bob Haney, drops Lebanon Valley ball carrier, Vern Magnuson (18), in the opening minutes of the game. In the Homecoming fray, the Dutchmen dropped the Hounds, 14-0.

Dutchmen Top Hounds In 14-0 Homecoming Upset

A damp but spirited crowd of 300 fans and alumni watched one of the wettest and muddiest games in the history of Moravian Homecoming celebrations as the Hounds lost to the Flying Dutchmen of Lebanon Valley, 14-0.

The Dutchmen threw one of the heaviest lines against the Hounds in recent years with an average of 215 pounds. Sophomore halfback Vernon Magnuson's two touchdowns and the tremendous defensive line were the main foes in the game.

Ken Longenecker, 6 ft. 325 lb. tackle, was at the head of the Valley's line. Except for Joe Esposito's 12 yard scamper through right tackle in the third quarter, the Hounds were unable to move Longenecker.

The Dutchmen's two scores were on a 15 yard march in the second period and another of 18 yards after a Moravian fumble in the final quarter.

The power of fullback George Hollendersky's punting saved the Greyhounds from a heavier defeat.

Stopped at the 15

The Hounds' deepest penetration of the day came in the second quarter when the Dutchmen resorted to a quick kick which put the ball on their 20 yard line. After three successful plays, with the Hounds in a 4 and 2 situation on the 12 yard line, quarterback Matz handed to Esposito who skirted left end, but to no avail as Frank Guorimazzo caught him at the 15, thereby saving a certain first down and a possible touchdown.

It was then a matter left to the Dutchmen as they handed to Magnuson for two first downs. Two plays later Magnuson took a pitch out from Guorimazzo swept right end and cut left for 29 yards and a T.D. On the conversion the Dutchmen lined up a placement kick but instead took a direct snap from center and jumped a two point pass to end Lavorini.

In the fourth period dropping the wet ball twice before an attempted handoff, Tony Matz, after an exchange of punts, fumbled on the Hounds 18 yard line and Longenecker recovered. Even though the Hounds held Valley to two yards in two plays it was to no avail as Guorimazzo passed to Lavorini on the seven for a first down. After three plays, Magnuson went over from the one. In all, he gained 113 yards on 25 carries.

59-Yard Boot

The big Greyhound threat of the afternoon was fullback George Hollendersky, who averaged 48 yards on seven punts. In the first period from his own 18, he punted a beauty to the Valley 11 (71 yards overall) and 59 for the books. His best kick of the day came from his goal line. The punt sailed and rolled dead on the Dutchmen 9 yard line—a distance of 91 yards (79 for the record.) In rushing George paced the Greyhounds, picking up 54 yards in a dozen carries.

Mike Payonk, Gus Rampone, and John Olsen all played excellent ball in the losing cause.

Among the returning letterman are: Russ Causely, Lorenzo Martin, Ducky Potter, Joe Keglovitz, Bill Davis, Leo Stinner, Dick Chergey, and John Olson.

Spelunkers Visit Kutztown Cave On First Field Trip

The Moravian Spelunkers started off the season this past week by visiting the Schaffer cave in Kutztown. The group was able to explore the entire limits of the cave which they had never been able to accomplish due to the high water level.

Future trips planned by Spelunkers are visits to Dragon cave, Carpenters cave, and Driebelbis cave.

Harriers Lose To E-town In Close Decision

Wendell Terry, freshman harrier star finished ahead of the field last Saturday, but it wasn't enough to stop Elizabethtown from taking a very narrow 27-28 victory.

Terry finished in 26:11, three seconds ahead of Elizabethtown's ace runner Glenn Bruckhart. The meet held on Mo-Mo's tough 4.4 mile course was run during a cold heavy rainfall which made the harriers move at a steady fast pace. However, the steady rainfall made the course slippery at places and very muddy along the golf course, part of the running distance.

Ray Herman and James Worman, sophomores who are running in their first year of competition, finished in a tie for fourth place in the excellent time of 27:58.

Jack Jacobs, sophomore letterman, finished 8th in 28:35, his best time ever on the home course.

Co-Captains

Jacobs and Terry were unanimously chosen as co-captains by the rest of the team for the remainder of the season.

The Harriers travel to Franklin and Marshall Wednesday and Albright Saturday.

The Summary:

Wendell Terry (M), 26:11; Glenn Bruckhart (E), 26:14; Bernard Thome (E), 27:58; James man (M) (tie), 27:58; James Worman (M) (tie), 27:58; Helmut Boer (E), 28:19; George Gibbel (E), 28:25; Jack Jacobs (M), 28:35; Bruce Hosler (E), 29:04; George Fiegel (M), 29:11; Hank Sunyak (M), 29:24; Richard Dunn (M), 29:26; William Rinker (M), 29:50; Richard Gross (M), 29:54; John Springfield (E), 30:11; Dennis Bleam (M), 31:26; Rod Bathbun (M), 31:32; Russ Simonetta (M), 32:30; Harvey Singer (E), 32:50.

clerk, "we don't have no elevator. But it lends a high tone to the place, don't you think?"

A mountaineer, visiting the big city for the first time, made his way through the lobby of a deeply-carpeted hotel. As he was struggling with the pen over the register, the room clerk noticed that the new guest had left a trail of mud across the room.

"You might at least wipe the mud off your shoes before entering a fine hotel," he remarked icily. The mountaineer, finishing his "X," looked up with amazement. "Whut shoes?" he asked.

Another backwoodsman, admiring the wonders of a swank hotel lobby, was particularly intrigued by the elevators. He watched as a little old lady stepped into one and disappeared behind the sliding door. Seconds later, the elevator returned and out stepped a stunning redhead.

"Golly," he marveled. "I should have brought my wife after all."

Polio Shots Set For Wednesday

Polio Injections will again be given in Archibald Johnston Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 5, between 8:00 and 9:15 a.m. The students receiving the Salk Vaccine may report late to classes.

It is very important that persons who received the first two injections of the series during the school program last year report for the third at this time. There are no restrictions, students may receive the first, second or third of the series on November 5th.

Each Copy of The Comenian Costs Students 19.2 Cents

Astounding as the fact may be, the paper you now hold in your hand is costing the students of Moravian College almost three times the price of one copy of the Bethlehem Globe-Times, and 4.2 cents more than a single copy of the Saturday Evening Post.

The price of producing newspapers is high, as evidenced by the following facts, but the price to Moravian students is even higher than the actual cost, due to free copies going out to non-paying readers.

Gross Cost of The Comenian. (28 issues).....$5,160.50
This includes costs of printing and all miscellaneous charges connected with the newspaper production.

For estimated paying readership, 900 copies of The Comenian are produced each week, making the *Moravian students, through their $25.00 per year contribution to the United Student Government fund, pay for the difference between the Gross Cost ($5160.50) and the advertising income ($1160)—a total of $4000.50. This amount was allocated to The Comenian this year by the USG.

When $4000 of a possible $18,500 allocated by the USG is taken by The Comenian, the newspaper is receiving 21.6% of the total allocation. Each student contributes $25 per year, of which 21.6% is $5.40—the cost of The Comenian for an entire year for each student.
