

Moravian Students Enter Artwork In Area Exhibit

Twenty Moravian College students have entered artwork in the second annual Intercollegiate Area Art Exhibition to be held at Lehigh University from Wednesday, April 13 until Wednesday, May 4. Other institutions participating in the event are Cedar Crest and Lafayette Colleges and Lehigh. The exhibition will open with a tea and reception at the Lehigh Alumni Memorial Building on Wednesday, from 3-5 p.m.

The exhibit will be open from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. daily and from 9 a.m.-noon Saturdays, in the same building.

Prizes will be awarded to students submitting the best work on the basis of selections to be made by a panel of judges. The monetary awards will be presented at 4:15 p.m. on the opening day of the exhibition.

Students from Moravian who have entered oil paintings are Frances Letowt, Ella Rupjas, Richard Hartzell, Myron Mellicke, and Edward Muscavage.

Those who have submitted water colors are Faith Hartman, Rose Szupper, John Bregman, and Wallace Koenig.

Marcee Ammend, Lois Behler, Carol Hahn, Nancy Helms, Katherine McCann, Joann Thomas, Patty Vincent and Sandra Yaeck have entered pastels.

Scratch boards have been submitted by Carl Freidenberg and William Hershey.

Serving as hostesses at the tea will be Miss Hahn, Barbara Johnson, Miss Letowt, Barbara Stefanagave and Miss Vincent.

The judging of the artwork will be done by Mr. Joseph Cantieni, an artist, Mr. Henry Franzreb, National Art Director, Dixie Cup Division, American Can Company, and Mr. Richard Hirsch, Director, Allentown Art Museum.

Moravian College was host to the exhibition last year.

Christianity Claims Total Personality Bremer Propounds

"Christianity is the total response of the whole person to God," claimed the Rev. Dr. David Bremer, chaplain of Muhlenberg College, who was the speaker at yesterday's convocation.

Speaking on the topic "Conformed or Transformed," Bremer said "for many college students religion is still a dull affair." This is true today because religion has lost much of its "freshness" and "excitement."

The speaker noted the modern trend towards conformity in all areas of life and said that this trend has also invaded the church. The result is that "the church cannot speak with clarity on social problems.

In discussing "being transformed" the Muhlenberg chaplain noted that it can be a very hard process since we must live life on God's terms. He said, this spiritual experience can be easy when we remember that God calls persons the way they are and that they need only possess "a broken and contrite heart."

Committee Set To Investigate Honor System

United Student Government president James MacDonald announced this week student appointments to a committee to investigate the feasibility of instituting an honor system on the campus.

The students are Fred Harberg, a senior, and Joan Albrecht and Ted Rights, juniors. Chairman of the committee is Stephanie

Rights A Sophomore

USG representatives voted at last Tuesday's meeting to establish the committee. Miss Rights, who introduced the motion, was appointed chairman at that time.

This is the first effort to re-study the matter since a student referendum two years ago prevented the adoption of an honor system. At that time 60 percent of the student body voted, 401-84, to defeat an honor code prepared after nearly two year's work by a student-faculty committee.

Following the referendum, which was held on April 29 and 30, 1958, Joseph Prorok, '58, then USG president, stated that a student-faculty committee would be established to investigate the matter in the fall of 1958. Such a committee was never conceived, however, and the project has remained dormant until now.

Sorority Group Plans Formal At Holiday Inn

The Inter-sorority Council announced this week plans for its annual spring formal dance, which will be held Saturday, April 23 at the Holiday Inn, Allentown, from 9-12 p.m.

Dance music will be provided by the "Sliderule Six."

The Holiday Inn is located directly off Route 22 in Allentown.

Tickets, at $3 per couple, may be purchased from Joan Mazur, Sandy Yaeck, Delores Lang or Barbara Roberts.

Members of the flower committee are Judy Freeman, Barbara Hooper, Arlene Tubio and Mary Jane Wolf.

The "Sliderule Six" is a student jazz group from Lehigh University.

Last year's Inter-sorority formal was held at the Hotel Taylor in Allentown.

Three Campus Groups Conduct Elections For '60-'61 Offices

Three campus groups, Alpha Psi Omega, the Grotto, and the Triangle Honor Society, conducted elections for fall offices this week.

Alpha Psi Omega . . .

Miss Cynthia Geiman was elected president of Alpha Psi Omega at a meeting of the honorary dramatic fraternity held on Tuesday, March 23 in the Alumni Office, South Campus.

Miss Vicki Tinnes was elected business manager of the group.

The formal initiation of the new officers will take place sometime in May following the Blackfriar's performance of "Blithe Spirit."

The honorary group was re-activated this year, according to Miss Dorothy Ruyak, college alumni secretary and advisor to the group.

She stated that the condition for membership is participation in any capacity in some college dramatic production.

Grotto . . .

Donald Morrow was elected president of the Moravian Spelunkers Grotto club at a meeting held on Wednesday, March 23 at 7:00 p.m. in the Science Building.

Elected to serve with him were Thomas Schmoyer, vice-president; Barbara Nagy, secretary; Charles Canning, treasurer; Bela Gulyas, historian; John Freyberger, United Student Government representative, and Colin Aldersley, equipment manager.

Classes Hold Elections For Next Year's Officers

Next year's senior, junior and sophomore classes selected their class officers in an election held Monday and Tuesday, April 4 and 5, in the lobby of Comenius Hall. Barry Gaal, David Coe and Thomas Ulrich were elected presidents of the Classes of 1961, 1962 and 1963, respectively.

Lipkin Installed TKE Prexy; Elliot Will Assist

Robert Lipkin was installed as the new president of the Epsilon Gamma chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon [TKE] social fraternity on Wednesday, April 6. The installation ceremony for the new officers was held in the TKE house. Elections were held on Sunday, April 3.

The other newly elected officers who were installed on Wednesday include: vice-president, Jacob Elliot; secretary, Fred Donatelli; treasurer, John Schultheis; historian, Joel Leeb; chaplain, Paul Dorozowski; sergeant-at-arms, Ralph Atkinson; pledge trainer, Thomas Fisher; house manager, Alan Finnegan; Inter-fraternity Council representatives, David Fehnel and John Schlegel.

Lipkin is a political science major from Coatesville, Penna. and is in his junior year. He has been a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon for two years and a member of the Varsity "M" Club and the tennis team.

A resident of Bethlehem, Elliot is in his junior year majoring in pre-medical studies. For the past year Elliot served the fraternity as alumni secretary. He is also a member of Rau Science society.

Donatelli is a business administration student from Bethlehem and in his sophomore year. He is (Cont. on p. 4, col. 4)

Summer Session Registration Now Open, Tyler Announces

Registration for the first session of the Moravian College summer session is now open according to Professor George Tyler, director of the program. Pamphlets giving complete details may be procured in Tyler's office on the fourth floor of Comenius Hall.

The information folder also lists the names of the faculty who will be on the summer session staff, Tyler said.

The eight-week sessions will consist of chemistry courses while the six-week session will include extensive language courses, regular one-semester courses, and the new subjects biology 100, accounting 201 and 202, psychology 201, social psychology, social problems, history 202, and math 110.

Tyler further stated that the dates of the particular sessions may be found in the pamphlets.

Tentative dates are from June 13 to August 5 for the organic chemistry labs and June 13 to July 8 for the other chemistry courses.

The six week session is broken into courses lasting either the

Other officers of the senior class are Gene Medei, vice-president; Marcee Ammend, secretary; Kenneth Sepe, treasurer; and Patrick Boyle, United Student Government (USG) representative.

Elected to serve the junior class were Kenneth Walsh, vice-president; Jacqueline Gall, secretary; John Schlegel, treasurer; and William Needs, USG representative.

The officers elected to serve with Ulrich in the sophomore class are Jan Fritz, vice-president; Gadgene Billiard, secretary; Joel Nadler, treasurer; and Bart Palenchar USG representative.

Gaal, a business administration major from Allentown, is a member of Omicron Gamma Omega (OGO) fraternity. He has been vice-president of the class of 1961 for two years and is a member of the Epsilon Beta Alpha business fraternity. Gaal is also a member of the Varsity "M" Club and the Men's Dormitory Council.

Medei is a business administration student from Bethlehem. Miss Ammend, who resides in Bethlehem, is majoring in elementary education. Sepe, a resident of Bloomfield, N. J., and Boyle, who is from Bethlehem, are both business administration majors.

Coe, who resides in Ocean City, N. J., is majoring in sociology. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and was vice-president of his class in his freshman year. Coe, who was recently named co-chairman of the Social Activities Committee, is a member of the Varsity "M" club.

Walsh is a business administration major from Salisbury, North Carolina. Miss Gall, from Hellertown, and Schlegel, who resides in Nazareth, are both sociology majors. Majoring in history, Needs resides in Dover, Ohio.

Ulrich is a business administration student from Reading. He is a member of OGO fraternity.

Fritz, who resides in Pottstown, is a history major. Majoring in elementary education, Miss Billiard is from Bethlehem. Nadler, from Plainfield, N. J., and Palenchar, from Bethlehem, are both pre-medical students.

Happy Hiatus!

With this issue, The Comenian suspends publication for the Spring recess. The next regularly scheduled edition will appear Friday, April 29. Dean of Instruction Marlyn A. Rader has announced that the Spring vacation will extend from 11:20 a.m. tomorrow until 8 a.m. Tuesday, April 19, Class Officers . . .

This past Monday and Tuesday the three undergraduate classes elected their officers for the coming year. We would certainly like to see these new "leaders" do something!

During the past years the class officers have done very little. Occasionally class meetings have been called. However, a combination of lack of definite class purpose and general student disinterest have resulted in relatively nothing being accomplished at these gatherings.

Each class usually sponsored about one financial flop per year. Then interest would drop to its lowest point until it was the time for the elections.

All in all, the only positive thing that seemed to come out of having all Moravian students organized along class lines was the class gift. In the past this item came out of class dues and their collection created another problem.

This problem is one which has been solved, at least temporarily, by the United Student Government.

The rather dismal performance of both class officials and members brings to light the questions "Are class officers necessary?" and "Should there be any type of student organization along class lines?"

Past events point to a definite "no" answer to both of these questions.

Also, the classes are becoming too large to practically effect any type of organization other than the extremely loose set-up which exists at the present time.

Then there is the apparently increasing tendency of merely seeking a class office to have another activity that will "look good" on graduate school or job applications.

There is always the danger and it seems to be increasing, that class executive positions will merely be used by fraternities and sororities as pawns to gain more supposed "power" and "big names" on campus.

Obviously the newly elected officers have a big job confronting them. They must overcome the obstacles placed in their path by preceding administrations and seek to raise their offices to a position of genuine respect and service.

We certainly hope they will be able to meet the challenge that has been given to them. Their attitude and actions can either justify their existence as officers or demolish the now doubtful necessity for class organizations.

Art . . .

A story in this week's Comenian tells of twenty Moravian College students who have entered their works in the second annual Intercollegiate Area Art Exhibition.

It is a very encouraging sign that such a relatively large number of students are having their work exhibited. Another interesting thing is the rather large number of major fields of study which these entrants represent.

These students are to be congratulated and we wish them good luck. Let us hope that in the future even more students will develop talents and skills, which may be outside of their major fields of study, in similar ways.

Trustees Laud Students . . .

The following resolution was passed by the Board of Trustees at its spring meeting on March 29, 1960:

"Upon motion made and seconded,

IT WAS VOTED that the Board convey its feeling of pride in the Student Body of Moravian College for participating in the Convocation, and the thoughtfulness reflected in the special preparation of the College Choir and Choral Ensemble as well as the presentation of the United Student Government message to the students of Charles University."

Coffee Klatsch

by Nancy Traubitz

Good morning group. Cheer up! Tomorrow at this time most of you will be home or well on your way. Many overdue congratulations this week.

Congratulations and best wishes to Vicki Kokolus and Dick Ruth, and Faith Hartman and Ed Streubert. Colleen Workman and Ronnie Taylor announced their engagement this weekend, and Joe Jardot and his wife are the parents of a new baby girl.

A word to all those lucky people writing Honors papers—"Its always darkest just before the dawn."

Unusual things going on around here these days. Can't resist congratulating Jim McDonald. He's now president of a unique organization . . . four lovely ladies and Jim. Good luck! The meetings should be hilarious. And then there's the Comenian editor who can't quite explain how one of the more comely members of the staff got the keys to his room. And then he tells her he thought they were the keys to the office! Hummm-m-m.

With spring the world changes and that goes for gossip columnists, too. I suppose every senior has the right to reminisce about special things that made these four years great. I get to remember in print. I especially remember the mornings we sat around in the MC and drank coffee. No problem was too big to solve in the MC. Or the times I wrote a really "good" column and Dave announced on Wednesday that "Sorry, we got four letters to the editor. Can't use your bit this week."

Triangle meetings at the Zellers, football games in the rain, the night I mailed the yearbooks and got locked out of the dorm, Christmas candles, choir concerts, bridge in the Femsee and spring on south campus. The thousand and one things that happen . . . Good - by Mo - Mo and thank-you.

(This week is the last time "Coffee Klatsch" will ever appear in print! Nan will not be returning to "Mo-Mo" after the Easter vacation. So, from the rest of the staff and all your readers, "Thank you very much and good luck." —The Editor.)

Student-Faculty Responsibility Is A Reciprocal Relationship

by Phyllis Zwarych

To members both of the student body and of the faculty are relegated certain responsibilities, responsibilities which ideally are fulfilled in a good college.

In the definition of the word "student" are automatically contained certain responsibilities. As a member of a higher institution of learning, he is one who studies or loves to study. He has progressed passed the point of a pupil, who needs the personal care and constant attention of his teachers.

According to the Moravian catalogue, the average C student is one who has devoted a reasonable amount of time, effort, and attention to each course in which he receives a grade.

Average Student?

He has become familiar with the content of the course, familiar with the methods of study for the course, has shown evidence of growth in actual use of both content and method, has actively participated in the work of the class (has completed required work on schedule and exercised responsibility in class), and has acquired an ability to express himself in intelligible English.

Any one meeting the standards of a C student could thus be proud of himself. Yet on our campus, one becomes aware that the model has shrunk from its moulding much more than what was expected. The student is the exception not the rule.

For instance, the student when he does a reading assignment constantly uses the dictionary, checks cross-references, and uses outside source material not only for clarification of the required material, but for his own intrinsic satisfaction in learning. The pupil never proceeds beyond his own textbook.

Teach or Educate

Every faculty member has a choice of doing three things, teaching, instructing, or educating. To teach implies the imparting of information so that others may learn. To instruct conveys the idea of methodical furnishing of knowledge. To educate is to bring out the latent capacities of the individual.

A good teacher is then actuality an educator not a teacher at all. He inspires and he stimulates interest. He does not expect anyone to regurgitate word for word what he has said in a lecture. In fact he would be horrified at the idea, for this type of memorization is not a learning process. But still more important, the educator expects the student to meet him halfway and indeed has a right to expect it.

Responsibility Two-Way

Responsibility is a reciprocal relationship between the one who performs the task or executes the trust and the one who imposes or expects the performance. The educator is expected to invigorate the student in order to bring out the individual's latent abilities. The student is expected to perform in the manner in which he will best reveal and utilize his latent abilities which have been exposed.

In all probability, no college will ever have more than a very few real students or very few educators. Yet if every member of the faculty and every member of the student body would attempt to embody the qualities of the best, then the entire college would be one step closer to the almost unobtainable ideal.

Tonight's Free Movie

"Citizen Kane," Orson Welles' first motion picture production, will be shown in rooms 9 and 10 Johnston Hall today at 7:30 p.m.

Based on the biography of a newspaper tycoon, the film employs new film techniques to depict and develop its character and story. The movie's success won it an Academy Award for the Best Original Screenplay of the year 1941.

The film stars Welles, Joseph Cotton, and Agnes Moorehead. It was directed by Welles, with the screenplay by Herman J. Mankiewicz and music by Bernard Herrmann.

The Sports Story

by George Fiegel

April showers bring May flowers; and cancellations. Two baseball games with Wilkes and Franklin & Marshall and one tennis match with LaSalle were cancelled. They won't be played this semester. The Lafayette golf match was delayed until May 12. What a start!

And now for my unpredictable predictions for the spring season. To start nationally and in the National League I'm putting Milwaukee on top. San Francisco will come in with a powerful second with the rest of the teams in this order: Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, and Philadelphia.

In the American League I'm going with Chicago in first with New York being squeezed out by a hair. Detroit with a little luck will take a weak third. The fourth to last positions go as follows: Cleveland, Boston, Kansas City, Baltimore, and Washington.

On our own circuit Coach Gillespie's 21st year as a baseball coach will see a 16-2 season. The two defeats are put there to cover any upsets that might take place.

The golf team under the competent direction of Coach Harold Bilheimer will have a winning season. Out of the 12 games in which they will engage they will win eight, losing four.

Coach Sam Kilpatrick is starting with a fresh tennis team this year and is building for the future. They meet 14 opponents this season but will only beat three of them.

Two of our wrestlers went to the Amateur Athletic Union meets last weekend. Bill Rinker, Moravian's 137-lb star, was pinned at his weight by a more experienced wrestler. The other man to go was Charles Canning, a transfer student, who was unable to wrestle for Mo-Mo this past year. He, too, was pinned by a better wrestler. These losses we can chalk up as "experience" and look for a better showing next year.

That's the sports story for this week.

First 3 Games Are Cancelled; Gillespie Says

H. T. D. Gillespie, Director of Athletics, announced last Tuesday that baseball games scheduled with Wilkes and Franklin and Marshall have been cancelled. Also, the tennis match with LaSalle scheduled for Wednesday afternoon was cancelled.

Due to excessive snow in the Wilkes-Barre area, Wilkes was not able to prepare its diamond in time for play last Saturday.

Gillespie said none of the rained out events would be rescheduled.

Netmen Travel To Haverford For Season Opener April 13

Coach Samuel Kilpatrick and his Greyhound netmen travel to Haverford on April 13 for their first of six away games this season. Kilpatrick and his squad hope to get off to a better start than last year when they dropped 11 straight matches.

Haverford will be a tough opponent for the inexperienced Greyhounds, for they always manage to come up with an excellent team. Last year, Haverford whitewashed Moravian 9-0.

The courtmen's next home game will be April 23 when they face Lebanon Valley.

Kilpatrick will send the following men to the nets next Wednesday: Bob Lipkin, George Fiegel, Dick Spaugh, Ken Walsh, John Bregman, and Peter French, in that order.

Hounds Will Battle Drew And Temple Despite Setback By Rainy Weather

Moravian diamondmen prepare for Drew and Temple games, April 9 and 11. Here, Jim Kelyman (right) clouts one as Gene Jani looks on. Photo by Galle

Beset by rainy weather, the Moravian College baseball team will play its two opening games next week.

April 9 will feature an away game with Drew University and on April 11 the Temple Owls will invade the Moravian home diamond.

The Temple game will be the most important of the two and possibly the most important of the year. The Owls, southern division Middle Atlantic champion last year defeated Moravian in the M.A.C. playoffs 8-6.

Three players, who were outstanding that day for the Owls and for the entire season, will be leading the team again this year. All-American - centerfielder Bill "Pickles" Kennedy led Temple in batting average (.444), hits (36), home-runs (5) and runs batted in (21).

In pitchers the Owls feature probably the best right hand southpaw one-two pitch in the M.A.C.

Don Flynn, ace righthander started in last year's victory over Moravian. The southpaw sensation for the Owls will be Jimmy Craig a junior speed-baller. The combination of these two players will be hard to handle for the Hounds.

The Greyhounds beat Drew last year, 7-1 and should find range for victory in the game.

SPRING SPOTLIGHT

When asked about this year's baseball squad Steve Edraney replied, "This year's squad is well balanced, has a lot of hustle and desire which is going to lead to a better record than last year."

Sophomore Edraney hails from Bethlehem, Pa. This 19 year old all-around athlete stands 5'10" and weighs in at 180 lbs. Before coming to Moravian, Steve attended Moravian Prep which offers no athletic program. However, he participated in American Legion Baseball, Church League Baseball, and City 'B' League Basketball. Here at Moravian, Steve is the mat squad's heavyweight as well as being a member of the diamondmen.

He is enrolled in the general studies course and either hopes to teach or find a career with the U.S. Navy. Steve is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and the Varsity 'M' Club.

Golfers At Upsala In Season's Opener; Line-up Announced

The Moravian College golf team, under the tutelage of Harold Bilheimer, travels to Upsala next Monday to officially open the 1960 golf season. Under Bilheimer the team has enjoyed a 38-7-3 record.

On Wednesday, April 13, the Hound golfers play host to Haverford.

Last year the team posted a 13-5 victory over Upsala, but conceded to Haverford, in a closely contested match, 9 1/2-8 1/2, on the victors' course.

The probable starting line-up for Moravian will be: Ducky Potter, Bob Volko, Gene Salay, Frank Solfka, Jim Kovacs, and either Tom McHale or Jim Harkel.

Two Grapplers Defeated In AAU Meets

by Bob Sallash

Both Hound entries in the Amateur Athletic Union tournament suffered opening round defeats last Saturday at the Germantown YMCA. Bill Rinker and Charles Canning were thrown by more experienced opponents in their first matches.

Dick Schaeffer, who also planned to wrestle in the tournament, could not make the trip due to an injury.

Charles Canning met ex-Lehigh EIWA champ Dick Santoro at 147 lbs. Santoro's ability and strength proved to be too much as he pinned Canning. The Lehigh grad placed second in the tournament.

Bill Rinker wrestled Charles Brown of Lockhaven in his opening bout. Brown also won on a fall over Rinker. The Lockhaven wrestler later decisioned Lehigh's Doug Baillie and went on to win the title at 137 lb.

UN Excursion To Highlight PAC Calendar

The Political Activities Club will highlight its spring calendar of events with a trip to the United Nations in New York on May 3.

Those people to be included in the trip are members of PAC, students of the international organization class and student leaders from the area high schools who participated as delegates at the model United Nations which was held this year under the sponsorship of the Lehigh Valley Foreign Policy Association.

Special Meetings

The group will meet with delegates from the United States, France, and Great Britain, with the representatives of the Soviet Union and with delegates from the Afro-Asian Bloc.

Attendance at committee meetings and a tour of the organization's facilities will be included.

Dr. Otis Shao, associate professor of government and faculty advisor to PAC, has requested that students interested in accompanying the group notify him, Ronald Narzisi or William Cordray.

Information Team Discusses Program

A Navy Information Team is presently visiting the college. The team arrived yesterday and will remain until this afternoon, discussing with students the Navy Officer Candidate School Program.

Students have been invited to consult with the team in the Emcee.

Senior Majors In Sociology To Organize

A meeting was held of senior sociology majors to organize a society for the advancement of sociology, to determine the purpose of such an organization, and to form temporary committees, thus building a foundation for the underclassmen.

The meeting was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John V. Machell on March 17.

Objectives

The objectives of this group are to provide academic stimulation for all, to create a bridge between academic sociology and practical knowledge and application, to orient students to vocational opportunities in sociology through speakers, field trips etc.

Constitutional and program committees were formed. Dick Ruth will serve as temporary chairman of the constitutional committee. Serving with him are Gene Salay and Jim Galbraith.

The program committee will include George Sophey as temporary chairman, Mary Lou Clewell, Cathy Donchez, and Jim Harkel.

Ruth was elected temporary chairman of the organization and Dawn Dangler temporary secretary.

James MacDonald was elected president of the Moravian College Triangle Honor Society at a meeting held on Tuesday, April 5 in Comenius Hall. Cynthia Geiman was elected vice-president of the group, and Judy Lanning is the new secretary-treasurer.

MacDonald, who lives in Staten Island, N. Y., is a junior English major. A member of Omicron Gamma Omega [OGO] fraternity, MacDonald is the newly elected president of the United Student Government (USG) and had held the office of treasurer of USG for the past year. He was vice-president of his freshman class and president of his sophomore class.

A member of The Comenian for three years, he has also been a member of the religious activities committee and the constitutional revisions committee.

Miss Geiman is a junior English major from Bridgeport, Conn. She is a member of Phi Mu Epsilon sorority and president of Alpha Psi Omega dramatic fraternity. Miss Geiman is the advertising manager of The Comenian and a member of the Blackfriars.

Miss Lanning, who resided in Palmyra, N. J., is a junior elementary education major. She is a member of Phi Mu Epsilon sorority and Kappa Delta Epsilon education sorority. Miss Lanning is also a member of the cheerleading squad and the social activities committee.

The other day our vice president in charge of good news announced that someone, somewhere, enjoys Coke 58 million times a day. You can look at this 2 ways:

Either we've got an incredibly thirsty individual on our hands. Or Coca-Cola is the best-loved sparkling drink in the world.

We lean to the latter interpretation.
