USG Allocates $18,420; Scott Elected Secretary

A total allocation of $18,420.32 in United Student Government funds was made to member organizations at a regular meeting of USG Tuesday evening. Eighteen organizations submitted budgets totalling $21,597.68, and the USG Budget Committee recently pared this figure to fit its available funds of $21,053.76.

Also this week, Jean Scott, a sophomore elementary education major from Hillsdale, N. J., was elected to fill a vacant seat as USG secretary.

Two hundred nineteen students voted for Miss Scott and 112 vot-

Local Senators Here Thursday For Sole Debate

Joseph S. Clark and Hugh Scott, United States senators from Pennsylvania, will engage in their only debate of the current campaign next Thursday at 8 p.m. in Grace Hall at Lehigh University.

Upon arrival in Bethlehem, the two will have dinner at the Hotel Bethlehem, after which they will travel by motorcade to the Lehigh campus.

The program will feature a ten-minute opening speech by each, after which there will be a questioning period. Following the debate, a news conference for college editors and the national press will take place.

The event will be sponsored jointly by the Lehigh Valley colleges, Cedar Crest, Lafayette, Lehigh, and Muhlenberg, in addition to Moravian, the Lehigh Valley Foreign Policy Association and the Lehigh Valley League of Women Voters. Representatives from each of these groups will serve as a questioning panel.

College President Dr. Raymond S. Hauptert will be the moderator. Tickets may be secured from Henry Cordray, president of the campus Political Activities Club.

Miss Scott, who was formally installed as secretary at Tuesday's USG meeting, is a member of the Woman's Activities Committee and the Regulations Committee.

The Budget Committee's recommendations on allocations were:

The Campus Christian Association was voted an additional $20 by USG delegates. A special allocation for the Mascot Fund of $300 was also made by the Budget Committee.

Organizations which were refused funds because of insufficient student representation or because they did not submit budgets included the Band, Comenian Literary Society, German Club, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Modern Language Club and Women's Athletic Association.

The allocations were decided upon at a closed meeting of the Budget Committee, held Friday evening, Oct. 7, and Sunday evening, Oct. 9. A motion was submitted that the meeting be conducted on an open basis and that organizations be allowed speaking privileges when their budgets

Sen. Kennedy, Gov. Lawrence To Speak On Mo-Mo Campus

Moravian College's football field will be the scene of the only major political campaign address to be made in the area during the current campaign by Senator John F. Kennedy, Democratic nominee for the presidency of the United States.

Kennedy's visit to Moravian College and the Lehigh Valley area will closely coincide with the

Rights, Yurchak Debate Foreign Policy Issues

Theodore Rights and Wasil Yurchak clashed on the Republican and Democratic foreign policy platforms of the current campaign in the second of a series of pre-election debates held Tuesday on the quadrangle behind Comenius Hall.

"Our foreign policy has been based on reaction, vagueness and uncertainty," Yurchak, a democrat claimed. He criticized the Republican administration for not having initiated any new international programs and with having worsened the cold war situation and America's relationship with the Communist world.

"We have ignored and neglected Latin America," Yurchak emphasized, "and have lost prestige in the space issue." He said that Senator Kennedy and the Demo-visit to be made to the campus by Pennsylvania governor David L. Lawrence, on Thursday, Oct. 27.

Lawrence will address the student body as well as outsiders from the community at an all student convocation to be held in Johnston Hall on the 27th.

Kennedy will arrive in Bethlehem on the night of Oct. 27 and will speak before the young Democratic clubs of the Lehigh Valley.

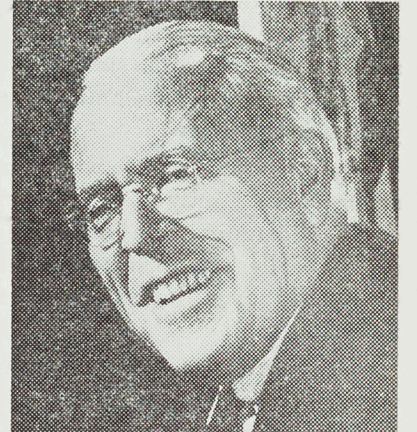

Expected to be in his party are his brother Robert Kennedy, who is also his campaign manager; Chester Bowles, representative from Connecticut; Joseph S. Clark, democratic senator from Pennsylvania; New Jersey governor, Robert Meyner and Lawrence.

In his half hour speech to be held on the college football field at 9 a.m. on the 28th, Kennedy is expected to concern himself with the main domestic and foreign policy issues of the current campaign.

Plans have been formulated for Kennedy to hold a press conference in Johnston Hall immediately prior to his campaign address. The press conference will be open to over 100 newsmen and members of the press of the area schools.

Tentative plans have also been made for a fund raising breakfast to be held at the Hotel Bethlehem at an hour not yet decided.

Following his speech, Kennedy will tour Bethlehem and will then proceed to Allentown for a minor address at the Allentown Center Square. After this he will travel to Wilkes-Barre and Scranton for further campaigning.

A student motorcade organized by the Democratic faction on campus, will meet Governor Lawrence at the Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton Airport early in the morning of the day of his speech. Lawrence's speech at convocation will be on "The Democratic Party for 1960."

Following his morning address, a luncheon will be given in his honor by college president, Dr. Raymond S. Hauptert. The luncheon will be held in the South Campus dining hall.

Homecoming Plans Set; Queen Candidates Chosen

Twelve candidates, representing each of the four classes, were chosen this week as candidates for Homecoming Queen. Five finalists will be selected in next week's general election to be held in Comenius Hall Monday and Tuesday.

The candidate receiving the largest number of votes will reign as queen during the annual Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 21-22. The four runnersup will serve as members of the queens court.

The queen will be announced during half time of the homecoming day football game with Lebanon Valley, and will be crowned during intermission of the homecoming dance in Johnston Hall.

Two parades are being planned for Friday night, Oct. 21 and Saturday afternoon, Oct. 22, before

Seidel Emphasises Need For College Education Today

Dr. William Seidel, Research Chemist for the Dupont Company, emphasized the need for a basic college education, at yesterday's convocation in Johnston Hall.

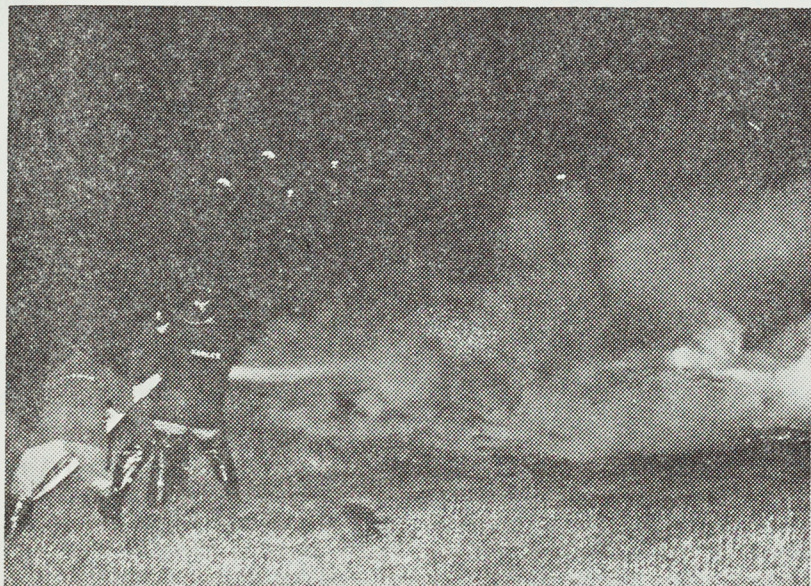

Seidel called today's youth "the most important people in the world, living in the greatest age man has ever known."

"More technological happenings," he added, "have occurred in the last 50 years than in any other period."

Seidel stressed the "3 H's:" "educating your head, your hands, and your hearts."

He urged "excellence in everything you do, with no place for mediocrity, because today's youth will lead the world."

Four Upperclassmen Sabotage Bonfire

City firemen douse flames of sabotaged bonfire last Thursday evening. Four upperclassmen started the blaze which was quickly put under control and extinguished. Photo by Galle

Wood collected by freshmen, for the Homecoming bonfire, was ignited last Thursday evening by four Moravian College upperclassmen.

The four students were Sidney Horrocks, a junior, and Carl Houseman, Peter O'Dell, and Robert Weglin, all members of the sophomore class.

Two buckets of gasoline were thrown on the pile and a blazing torch was tossed onto the saturated wood. The resulting explosion was felt for a radius of six blocks and quickly brought the city police and fire department to the scene.

Freshmen guarding the pile detained Horrocks and O'Dell and named Weglin and Houseman as participants.

The students will be placed on disciplinary probation for the per-

A Campus Radio Station

Organizational plans for a campus radio station to be run in conjunction with the facilities of Lehigh University were presented to the United Student Government at its meeting last Tuesday.

Under the plan Moravian College, for a rather modest fee, could operate an around the clock radio station. It was brought out by the organizational chairman that the station could serve the campus dormitory students with "music to study by," coverage of home and away sports events, programming of panel discussions, choir concerts, special organization programs, community concert rebroadcasts and student election campaign speeches, just to name a few.

The program, which would of necessity start off on a limited scope serving only Rau-Hassler Dormitory and South Campus, could, if campus-wide interest demanded, be broadened to reach all the college's dormitory students. Programming range could eventually even be expanded to include areas in the student union.

The committee, which was appointed to investigate possibilities of such a program, estimated, after professional consultation, that the program could be effectively organized and set into operation at a cost of about $365.

This amount was subdivided as follows: transmitter, $100; telephone lines, $50; record library, $50; engineering expenses, $115 and an additional transmitter for South Campus, $50.

It must be taken into consideration, however, that these figures primarily represent organizational costs and do not represent the ensuing operational costs which would be considerably lower.

The committee approached USG for a budget allocation but were denied immediate consideration because USG constitutionally can only support USG member organizations or organizations which have been active for at least one semester.

Therefore, upon the recommendation of the USG president, the committee was advised to seek financial aid from the administration for the necessary one semester until they could be reconsidered by USG.

At this time we would strongly urge the administration to carefully consider the request for financial aid to be submitted to them by this committee and to grant the committee the necessary funds to get this most worthwhile student endeavor underway.

An appreciable number of students has already expressed keen interest in this project and we are sure that increasingly more interest will be shown and that this project will be one which will greatly benefit the college as a whole.

Cordray, Stupak Debate On Campaigns Political Past Is Key To Future Progress Challenges of '60's Need Dynamic Leaders

by Henry Cordray

by Ronald Stupak

Today in America you are living in a time of world change and challenge. Our country is being met with the greatest challenge of all, and that is communistic aggression. Our very existence is being threatened, and we must respond to this challenge to preserve the world for our basic ideals of life and government.

In the last 7 1/2 years, you have seen great strides by our country to meet the challenge of communism. In the previous Democratic Administration you saw 4,995,000 square miles of territory, 100,000,000 Europeans, and 600,000,000 for Easterners including China move behind the Iron Curtain.

Yet you find no substantial territorial gains achieved by communism in the last 7 1/2 years. The Republicans have also dealt effectively with other problems. Social Security was expanded to cover an additional 12,000,000 people. Unemployment insurance was extended to an additional 6,300,000.

The Democrats accused us at their convention of allowing a missile gap to develop between Russia and ourselves. But as Walter Judd said in his Key-note address, "The administration did not create a missile gap, but found one, and has almost managed to close it." This gap is being fulfilled today by the success of the first nuclear powered missile submarines, the Thor, Atlas, Polaris, and Titan missiles, that have all been developed recently.

This nation is not a second rate power as some would have you believe. This country has continued to lead the world and to defeat Russians in the Red China issue, the U-2 incident when we were accused of aggression, and in other Soviet charges, under the United Nations leadership of Henry Cabot Lodge. This man has not allowed the Communist Bloc to gain one success in their drive against the West.

President Eisenhower has said "Richard Nixon has had more preparation in carrying out the duties of the Presidency, than any other man in history." What has caused the President to say this? Nixon's role as President of the Senate, chairman of the National Security Council and presiding officer of the cabinet on several occasions presents great evidence for his statement.

At three different times the Vice President has taken over the government when the President was too ill. His wide travels in 32 foreign countries as the personal representative of the President has brought him in contact with world leaders like Nehru, MacMillan, Tito, Khrushchev, and others.

The concern of Americans today must be towards the future; the world is changing so rapidly that new means must be used to achieve the ends of American national purpose. These new means must be carried out under the dynamic leadership of the Democratic Party, the party of invention, innovation, and imagination. This party, under the leadership of John F. Kennedy, is the force that is capable of facing the challenges of the future. This party, with its platform entitled, "The Rights of Man," will give to the American individual the civil and economic rights essential to the human dignity of all men.

The Democratic platform advocates the following proposals on their behalf of our elder citizens: paid up medical insurance on retirement, broadened Social Security benefits, higher retirement earnings, increased assistance for widows, decent housing, and expanded basic research into the diseases associated with aging.

Second, the new Democratic Administration will cast out military capacity in order to provide forces and weapons of a diversity, balance, and mobility sufficient in quantity and quality to deter both limited and general aggressions.

Third, every American should have the right to earn enough to provide adequate food and clothing and recreations. This is why the Democrats pledge to raise the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and to extend coverage to several million workers not now protected.

Fourth, the Democratic Party promises to reform the processes of government in all branches—executive, legislative, and judicial to improve government services and bring a savings to all American tax payers.

Fifth, the Democratic Party seeks to create an affirmative atmosphere in which to deal with racial divisions and inequalities which threaten the integrity of our democratic faith. And with this faith in human dignity and an open society, the Democratic party adopted a firm Civil Rights plank.

Finally, as a national investment in America's future, the Democratic platform proposes a program of loans and scholarship grants to assure that qualified young Americans will have full opportunity for higher education regardless of the income of their parents. Since education seems to be the "battle ground of the future" in the cold war arena, it becomes evident that the Democratic party will not allow individual talent to be wasted.

College's Enrollment Of 817 Is Varied

This year's college enrollment draws from 16 states and 11 foreign countries, the Registrar's office has announced. There are 315 dormitory residents and 502 commuters in a total enrollment of 817. There are also 14 special students. Last year's enrollment totalled 818.

There are 289 new students, including 248 freshmen, 11 transfers and 14 re-enrolled former students. Other classes include 239 sophomores, 171 juniors and 159 seniors.

Six hundred students are residents of Pennsylvania and there are 130 from New Jersey. New York claims 48. Other states represented are Connecticut, 11; Wisconsin, nine; North Carolina, seven; Ohio, five; Massachusetts, Maryland and Virginia, two each; and Maine, Minnesota, Indiana, North Dakota, Michigan and Alabama, one each.

Foreign countries represented in the enrollment include Canada, Greece, Indonesia, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Korea, Samoa, and the West Indies. There are also students from Okinawa and the Virgin Islands.

Three hundred and ten students are studying for the Bachelor of Arts degree and 507 are working for the Bachelor of Science.

Harriers To Travel To P.M.C. For Third Test This Season

Coach Paul Kuklantz and his cross country squad will carry a 0-2 record into tomorrow's meet with PMC. The race will be held on the recently extended 4.5 mile course of the host Cadets. Last year visiting PMC defeated the Hounds by a 26-31 score.

Ron Tasket and Jim Dougherty crossed the finish line in the exact time of 27:06. George Fiegel and Jim Worman captured 3rd and 4th places in times of 27:37 and 28:24 respectively. Bill Rinker, Don Whetmore, Tom Grammes, and Byron Borst finished in the top ten for Moravian, last year.

Elizabethtown scored a decisive 17-35 victory while Juniata romped by the score of 15-44 to account for the Hounds' performance in this campaign. Grammes, Worman, Fiegel, and Borst will lead the harriers in tomorrow's contest with the freshman members of the team expected to add the needed support.

I-M Program To Open With Soccer Games

Rocco Calvo, assistant professor of physical education, has stated that the fall intramural sports program will begin the second week in October this year instead of during the first week as was the custom in past years.

The reason for the delay is due to the fact that representatives from only three teams attended the first organizational meeting called by Calvo.

This year Calvo is experimenting with a program consisting of intramural soccer instead of football. The new soccer league will consist of the following six teams: Rau Frosh, Dorm Students, Tekes, Sigma Phi, OGO's, and the Vets.

Each team will play six games and their will be a play-off if necessary.

Fall Focus

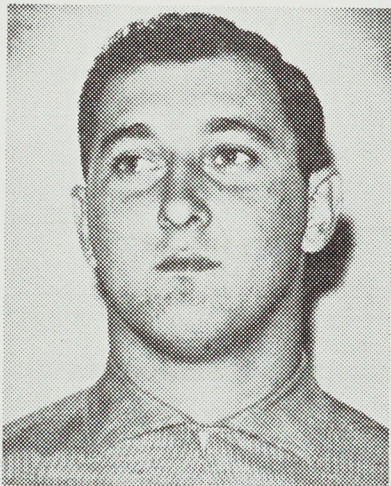

Tony Gawronski—Tackle

The Fall Focus column this week features one of the more prominent football enthusiasts of Moravian College who advocates, "Although we had received a defeat at the hands of Juniata, this is not the end of the season. We will continue to play at the best of our ability and try to conclude with a winning season."

That man is Gawronski—Tony Gawronski. This six foot, 225 pounder is a sophomore business major here at Mo-Mo.

Gawronski's hometown is Camden, New Jersey, where he attended St. Joseph's High School and earned three letters in football and four letters in baseball; being captain of the football team in his senior year ('57).

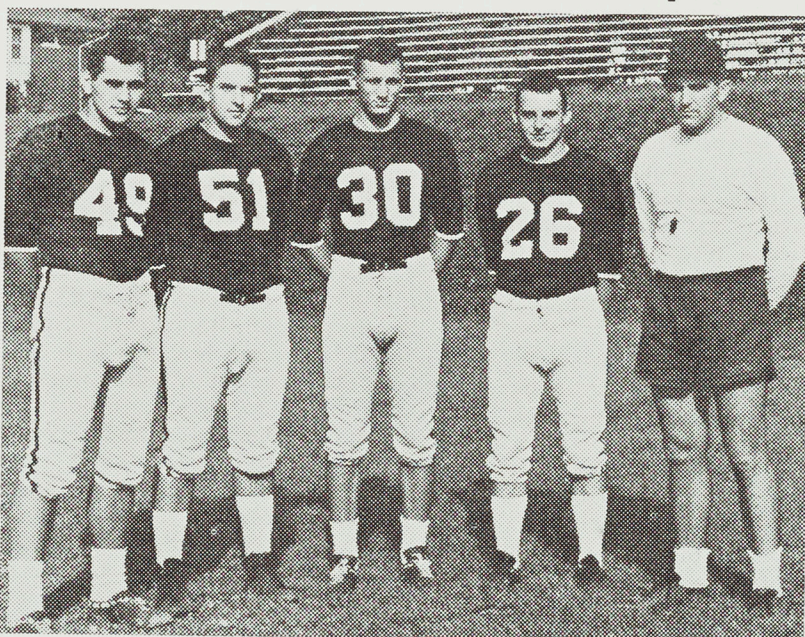

The most significant event he

has experienced in sports is the winning of the Baseball City District Series in Camden in 1957.

Hounds Meet PMC Cadets On Away Field

by Warren Brill

After a 20-0 licking by Juniata College, the Moravian College Greyhounds will face the Cadets of Pennsylvania Military College at the P.M.C. field tomorrow afternoon.

The P.M.C. team has twenty returning lettermen; among them Walt Krate, the most outstanding halfback in the Middle Atlantic Conference last year. Also returning is last year's undefeated freshmen team.

In their last meeting, the Greyhounds beat the Cadets by a score of 26-12. So far this year, Western Maryland and Wilkes have fallen at the hands of the Cadets. The Cadets have lost to Wagner College.

Head Coach Rocco Calvo plans to move Jabby Williams to either the fullback or halfback position. Alternating at quarterback will be Andy Semmel and Dick Ritter.

Looking back on last week's game with Juniata, Calvo said that the main reason for the Hounds' defeat was too many fumbles. "Whenever we moved the ball well, a fumble killed our drive. One of these was a fumble on the five yard line," said Coach Calvo.

"The team's biggest weakness was pass defense," related Calvo.

Shifting to the better points of the game, Calvo said that the line did a good job, and the protection given the passer was fine. The passing looked better too, even though there were some interceptions.

Calvo said he had nothing radically new planned in the offensive game of the team, but he hinted he has something up his sleeve. The lineup will be the same as last week, the only exception will be Williams at either halfback or fullback.

Hounds out with injuries are Bill Hino, with a leg injury and Ed Weinhofer, with a severely sprained ankle. John Olson, out with a shoulder separation sustained at a scrimmage with Ursinus, may see some action in the game.

In the past 12 meetings of the two teams, the Cadets have beaten the Hounds eight times, while the Hounds have been victorious four times.

Juniata Tops Gridders 20-0; Fumbles Prove Very Costly

Juniata continued its long standing hold over the Hounds Saturday with a 20-0 win. Moravian was doomed from the offset. On the opening kickoff the Hounds fumbled the ball on their own 15. Juniata halfback Anthony Faber recovered the fumble, and two plays later Juniata was in the Moravian endzone. The scoring play was a pass from quarterback Ken Bechtel to end Dave Helsel.

Juniata Team Hands Hounds Second Loss; Worman Places Sixth

As one half of a double defeat for Moravian, the Harriers lost their cross-country meet to Juniata at Huntingdon, Pa., last Saturday by a score of 44-15. This was the second loss for the Moravian squad in two outings.

Over the tough 4.3-mile course Juniata runners took the first five places while Moravian took the sixth to eighth spots and eleventh and twelfth.

The first position was captured by Don Layman of Juniata with the time of 24:48.

Jim Worman took sixth for the race and first for Moravian. Tom Grammes and George Fiegel followed with seventh and eighth places respectively. Byron Borst and Ray Herman took the final eleventh and twelfth scoring places.

Three minutes later Helsel recovered a fumble on the Moravian 39. Juniata again capitalized on a break. Six plays later Bill Rehn scored from five yards out. Bechtel kicked two extra points to make the score 14-0.

Juniata's last touchdown came in the fourth quarter when halfback Harry Long intercepted a pass on the Moravian 24 and raced over the goalline for another six points.

Moravian's only sustained drive of the game came in the last quarter. The Hounds moved the ball to the Dutchmen's five yard line, but a fumble kept them from paydirt.

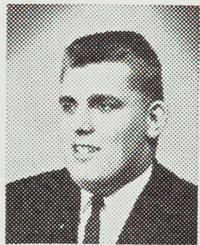

During the course of the game Moravian lost four fumbles. Two of these proved to lead to Juniata tallies. Another kept the Hounds from scoring.

The Hounds were outgained both on the ground and in the air.

Sports Unillustrated

by Tom & Jay

Fumbelitis hit the Hounds last Saturday and it was just too much for them to recover. They dropped a 20-0 decision to Juniata and did it all on mistakes which kept adding up. To make the day a complete failure, freshman guard Ed Weinhofer suffered a sprained ankle.

T. Fromhartz

On the other side of the ledger, Lehigh continued undefeated, and the Mules of Muhlenberg won their first game of the year.

In this weekend's action, we look for Moravian to take P.M.C. by a 20-12 score. The Cadets have looked very good this year, but the Hounds have just been making too many mistakes. If they can shake that, they will take the Cadets.

The Lehigh Engineers looked better than good against Gettysburg. They shellacked the Bullets by a 52-21 count. Lehigh faces Tufts this week end and should add another win to the victory column. We say 46-6. Last year a less endowed Engineer team rolled over Tufts 63-0.

Muhlenberg just squeaked by Temple last weekend. They face a strong opponent this week in the Lebanon Valley squad. The Dutchmen are 3-0 in the Northern College division of The M.A.C. We say the Dutchmen should win by a 21-6 score.

The Hound Harriers have lost two in a row, both by decisive margins. What's with this supposedly improved team? We look for a comeback this week against P.M.C. Coach Kuklantz needs some experienced runners out there. Where are the boys who have won letters and are now sitting on their laurels. Let's get in the game men.

That does it for this week. Let's get behind that football squad. P.M.C. isn't that far away, so there should be a good group of Moravian backers to cheer the boys on.

It was pointed out that this would eliminate the necessity for organization representatives to wait until they were called in to the committee's proceedings, and would afford fairer opportunity to voice opinions or objections.

Discussion was conducted on the establishment of a campus radio station. A tentative budget of $315 to cover initial costs was submitted to USG by Bernard Staller, who outlined the nature and scope of the project. Further consideration on this matter will take place after Staller has consulted the administration with regard to its financing the project for its first semester of operation. USG cannot, under its constitution, finance the project initially.

the football game. The parades will include floats to be entered by various organizations of the college community, the band, majorettes, cars carrying the five queen candidates, the pajama clad freshmen, decorated cars and other unusual features.

Plans for house and dormitory decorations have been set into motion, Alan Bornstein, Social Activities Committee co-chairman, stated. He said that all residence decorations will have to be completed by 3:30 p.m. on Friday.

This year there will be two judgments of the house decorations, one at 4:30 p.m. and a second at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of this, Bornstein stated, is to judge the decorations under both daylight and evening conditions. "Some will look better in the daylight and others will look better at night," Bornstein suggested. The judging will be done by a faculty committee.

Ugly Man Contest Sponsored To Raise Funds For Drive

An "ugly man" contest will be conducted by Alpha Phi Omega (APO) to raise money for the United Fund Drive, Charles Canning, co-founder of APO, announced earlier this week.

The contest will be open to all fraternities, sororities, student organizations, or dormitory groups other than members of APO. Applications for the contest must be turned in to the office of Dr. Samuel Zeller, chairman of the religion department, before noon on Saturday, Oct. 22.

The organizations must also submit an 11"x14" cartoon of their candidate to be used on the ballot jars.

All votes given to the contestants will be counted proportional to the face value of the coins contributed to each individual. An unbiased panel made up of faculty members and members of student organizations will be in charge of counting the votes. Any student can vote as often as he chooses, Canning stated.

Prizes will be awarded to first, second, and third place winners. The first prize will consist of an individual award for the "ugly man" in addition to reserved seats at the Muhlenberg football game and reserved tables at the Inter-Fraternity dance for the winning organization.

Second and third prize winning organizations will also receive choice seats for the game.

Winners will be announced during the half time of the Family Day football game with Wagner on Nov. 12. Anyone requesting additional information should contact Donald Evans, president of APO, or Canning.

The parents of the four students will receive letters from the dean describing the incident and punishment imposed on the group. The students were also ordered to make a personal apology to members of the freshman class.

Freshmen Petition

Joseph Castellano, chairman of the Disciplinary Committee, stated that the decision of the committee was influenced by the presentation of a petition to him, signed by members of the freshman class, requesting that the offenders not be expelled from the college.

The four upperclassmen involved expressed regret over the incident and hoped that their actions would not cause the deletion of the traditional bonfire from the Homecoming proceedings.

cratic party have offered the positive solutions to some of the prime international problems.

In rebuttal, Rights said, "Nixon and Lodge can lead you to a better America and a better world." Referring to recent Democratic promises, he added that "easy slogans will not do" and that "positive proposals" must back America's foreign policy."

Rights explained that the Republican party in the past has accomplished much in the way of foreign relations, such as the Korean armistice and efforts toward a new personal diplomacy, initiated by Vice-president Nixon's visits to 17 countries during his term of office.

The Republican party's aims in coming years must encompass such ideals as stopping Communist aggression, expanding foreign economic aid, eliminating waste in foreign aid and affording greater Congressional leadership, Rights said.

This is the B-52. Advanced as it may be, this airplane has one thing in common with the first war-galleys of ancient Egypt...and with the air and space vehicles of the future. Someone must chart its course. Someone must navigate it.

For certain young men this presents a career of real executive opportunity. Here, perhaps you will have the chance to master a profession full of meaning, excitement and rewards...as a Navigator in the U. S. Air Force.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet you must be an American citizen between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. A high school diploma is required, but some college is highly desirable. Successful completion of the training program leads to a commission as a Second Lieutenant...and your Navigator wings.

If you think you have what it takes to measure up to the Aviation Cadet Program for Navigator training, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Or clip and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.
