IN FOCUS 2013-2014: Healthcare

Quick Overview
The Spirit Level—First Year Reading

Attempt to address all of our IN FOCUS themes and expand the definition of “health.”
September

Fall Convocation | September 12
Paul Root Wolpe, Ph.D

“Re-Creation: The Biotechnological Restructuring of Life.”

“Building Better Brains: How Neuroscience is Altering Human Functioning.”
October

Christopher Lynn "Chris" Hedges

Pulitzer Prize winning American journalist specializing in politics and society; and the 7th Peace and Justice Scholar in Residence, “Days of Destruction, Days of Revolt“

The Myth of Human Progress and the Collapse of Complex Societies
October

Janet A. Sipple Lectureship

Mary Moller

Associate Professor
Yale Unv. School of Nursing

“The Growing Concern about Mental Health Issues in the Nation”
Fall

- Monthly newsletter, periodic campus-wide emails.

- Links to resources concerning the Affordable Care Act.

- Highlighting student work such as student work in Nicaragua and Honduras.

- Other activities such as Satori performance and film screenings.

- Oversaw student efforts on a survey about food reform on campus.
Dr. Diana Thomas
What can mathematical models tell us about losing and gaining weight?

Dr. Oscar Marcilla
Physicians for a National Health Program
IDIS 190.2: Healthcare Film Series

• 41 students enrolled

Stephen Lewis, Celebrated Humanitarian | Former UN Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS in Africa

MARCH 18TH, 7:30 PM, Foy Concert Hall
Health Professions Fair

March 25th, 6:00-9:00 pm, HUB

Panel discussion and information fair.
Coming Soon

Fran Quigley, a clinical professor of law, teaching in the Health and Human Rights Clinic of the Indiana University School of Law

Monday, April 14th, 7:00 pm
“When the Best Medicine is an Advocate.”
Thank you.

- Thank you for your support of the IN FOCUS program as we celebrate the third year of the program. Please continue to encourage the students to make the most of all IN FOCUS sponsored events.