CALL FOR PAPERS
RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM ON POVERTY AND INEQUALITY
APRIL 5-6, 2016

This conference explores the causes and consequences of Poverty and Inequality from a variety of disciplines. We invite proposals from faculty, students and extend a special invitation to members across the LVAIC consortium. We will accept proposals for papers or panels on any topic related to Poverty and Inequality but particular consideration will be given to the following:

2. Interdisciplinary aspects of poverty and inequality.
3. Special panels focusing on War, Peacebuilding and the Just Society, Sustainability and Health.

Please submit an abstract by January 30, 2016 to:
aziz@moravian.edu

The program committee will notify accepted applicants by February 10, 2016. We hope you will encourage submissions from undergraduate students for whom we will organize special panels.

The conference is sponsored by the Center for Investigation on Poverty and Inequality In Focus.

Dr. Sonia Aziz & Dr. Nicole Tabor
Conference Directors
Co-directors, Center of Investigation on Poverty and Inequality
Moravian College
aziz@moravian.edu