For veterans, their families and friends associated with the area colleges, and local community, students and faculty as well as others who wish to learn more about promoting recovery and flourishing following the experiences of war.

Claim the right to well-being!

Too many veterans and their families suffer diminished lives as a result of military events.

Learn how veterans and their families are becoming agents in their own recovery here and elsewhere.

Learn more about how the Veterans Recovery Movement addresses the invisible wounds that challenge our veterans and their families.

“Veterans and Their Families - Recovering and Thriving”

Welcome them home, help them heal.

Amy Blumenshine, MSW, MART (Religion and Theology), and PhD is a Diaconal Minister called by the Minneapolis Area Synod of the ELCA to address the suffering of veterans and their families. She coauthored Welcome Them Home — Help Them Heal; Pastoral care and ministry with service members returning from war (winner of the 2009 Ben Franklin Religious Book of the Year award.) She continues to be published on this topic in theological journals and the popular press.

In 2005, she convened the Coming Home Collaborative to engage faith communities and health professionals in addressing moral injury and in reducing the secondary trauma veterans and their families often experience. More information can be found at the following websites: Coming Home Collaborative website at www.facebook.com/Coming.Home.Collaborative and the Minneapolis Area Synod website at www.mpls-synod.org/veterans-ministry

Moravian College encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact us, or call 610-861-1400 at least one week prior to the event.