Catalog/Course Description:
This course provides the foundation of ethical theories and bioethics relative to healthcare. The relevance of ethics to decision-making within the healthcare system is explored. Ethical issues that affect healthcare professionals and individuals across the lifespan are analyzed.

Objectives:
1. Understands ethical theory and its relevance to decision making within healthcare.
2. Contrasts the three ethical theories of deontology, teleology, and principalism as it relates to ethical dilemmas.
3. Uses the MORAL ethical decision making model to address ethical issues inherent within clinical practice and nursing research
4. Applies principles of health care ethics to justify ethical decisions that affect individuals across the lifespan.
5. Discusses the interdisciplinary role of the nurse as it relates to ethical decision-making.

Required Textbook:

Reeves Library Textbooks on Reserve

Learning Service Accommodations:
Students who have any learning disabilities or specific accommodations that needs to be made are advised to consult with Learning Services (Ex 1510). Students are also encouraged, yet not required to inform course faculty of those situations that can affect academic performance. Resources may be available to aid students who are experiencing academic difficulty.

Course Requirements:
Directives for graded course requirements are available online at the course Blackboard site. The URL for Blackboard is http://blackboard.moravian.edu

Graded Requirements:
- Reflective journals related to case studies (25%)
- Written movie critique using the MORAL ethical decision making framework as the basis for the critique (20%)
- *Argument Research Paper/Presentation (25%)
  Students will address an ethical issue across the lifespan such as: Nursing the childbearing family i.e. reproductive technology such as IVF and advanced maternal age ("granny pregnancies"); selective reduction; fetal research/use of embryonic research; mandatory Newborn HIV testing; sperm retrieval from cadavers; human cloning; gender selection; marketing human embryos; eugenic sterilization Nursing care of children i.e. futile pediatric care; children's rights versus paternalism; life versus death decision making; the rights of the adolescent in quality of life cases Nursing care of the adult: HIV test reporting for public protection; right to refuse treatment for self or dependents; right to privacy and confidentiality; clinical trials Nursing care of the elderly: truth telling; competency matters; principles of equality and equal consideration, allocation of transplant organs, scarce medical resources; euthanasia and physician assisted suicide.
- Class participation: Students will be required to actively participate in class discussion related to case studies. Discussion will be based on ethical theory or principles as they relate to the case. (10%)
- Final Examination: (20%)

* Writing Intensive Course: Students who have elected to fulfill Writing Intensive Course Requirements for NURS 395 will be required to submit a formal research paper in addition to the presentation. The writing process will be refined in this assignment. Students (W-I) will submit drafts for instructor feedback and peer review prior to final submission for a grade.

Attendance Requirements:
Class attendance is an expectation. Students are expected to be prepared for all class meetings, to arrive on time, and to engage themselves in class discussion. Students who are not prepared may not be able to meet course standards and are at risk for course failure.

1. If a student is late to class more than one time, 1 point will be deducted from the final grade for each subsequent time s/he is late.
2. If unable to attend a class, please contact the course faculty prior to the class session to be missed via phone or notification of Department Secretary. Students who do not notify the faculty prior to a missed class and do not present a valid excuse will have 1 point deducted from their final course grade for each unexcused absence. Faculty will determine whether or not a student’s absence will or will not be excused. Students are responsible for obtaining any notes, handouts or other class items from classmates.

Course Requirements:
Directives for graded and satisfactory/unsatisfactory (S/U) course requirements are available online at the course Blackboard site. The URL for Blackboard is http://blackboard.moravian.edu.

Academic Integrity:
1. Evidence of plagiarism or academic dishonesty will be handled according to the college policy on academic honesty. This policy is described in the Moravian College Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the intentional use of another’s words or ideas as your own. This can range from using another individual’s direct words or changing the words without appropriate citation. It also includes obtaining a paper from someone else, using text or images from the Internet, or submitting written material from a professional writing service. Note: Using text or images on Powerpoint and web pages without proper citation is also considered plagiarism.

Grading Policy:
1. Assignments are expected on or before their due date. Five points per day will be deducted from a graded assignment or project grade for each day late up to 5 days. After that time assignments/projects will not be accepted and will earn a grade of 0.
2. The grading scale is as follows:
