Course Description, Objectives, and Format:
Welcome to English 220! As the gateway course for English majors and minors at Moravian, this class is designed to develop students’ existing skills in English studies and to introduce students to more advanced approaches to the understanding of content, resources, and methods in the discipline. Using selected texts from various genres, the course will focus on aspects of English studies such as analysis and interpretation of literature, bibliographical and research techniques, critical thinking, and literary theory. The course will allow you to read, analyze, and interpret a diverse range of works, to write several different types of papers, to develop your research skills, to explore critical theory with a variety of different genres and authors, and to continue establishing your own distinctive approach to literary scholarship. As literature is a representation of reality, reading it requires you to interpret and to support your interpretation. Our discussions and written assignments will help you refine the critical reading and writing skills essential not only to reading literature, but also to critical assessment and understanding in general. And, along the way, you’ll get to enjoy some great reading! While we’ll occasionally use short lectures, audio-visual aids, Blackboard postings, and presentations, our class will consist primarily of writing and discussion: preparation and participation are, therefore, essential to the success of the class and to your success in it.

Assignments:

English 220 is a writing-intensive class. You will draft and revise two 3-5 page papers, one 10-12 page paper, and several other shorter assignments. You will also conduct a research skills project and make oral and group presentations. There is no mid-term or final exam, although you will have the option to re-write one paper at the end of the semester as a take-home ‘final.’ Specific requirements for the assignments will be discussed in advance of each assignment. Please choose paper topics in a timely fashion. I encourage and expect you to consult with me throughout the course of your assignments. Draft workshops and individual conferences will help you strengthen your writing process. I do not accept papers that have not been reviewed in the draft workshop process. Papers are due in class on the due dates noted on the syllabus. In addition to the final version of a paper, all preliminary drafts, notes, etc. are to be handed in; otherwise, the assignment is incomplete and will not be accepted.

Extra Credit:

Students may earn up to a total of three points of extra credit to be added at the end of the semester to their lowest assignment grade. Extra credit is earned through confirmed participation in various activities related to literature and writing. A student whose attendance is verified at the MC Undergraduate Conference in Medieval and Early Modern Studies, at the Dodge Poetry Festival, at a MCTC production, or at a MC poetry or fiction reading will earn one point for each activity. Attendance at performances and readings at other Lehigh Valley institutions may also be eligible for extra credit. Similarly, any student for whom submission of creative work to Manuscript or other literary journal is verified will earn one point. Also, any student for whom a session with the Writing Center is verified will earn one point. Total extra credit may not exceed three points.

Attendance and Participation:

Be here: I will take roll regularly. You are expected to attend each day. Be prompt: Class begins at 12:50 pm sharp. Be prepared: Your first responsibility is to read carefully, re-read, and be prepared to discuss, both orally and in writing, all assignments. You should expect to devote several hours to preparing for each class. Participate: Classes become more meaningful the more you engage yourself in them. You are expected to make comments or ask questions on the readings and topics each day. I will not hesitate to call on you if you are not contributing. Class time allotted for group work, group discussion, draft feedback, etc. is instructional time; you are expected to remain focused on the assigned activity for all of the allotted time.

If you know you will be absent from class, please talk to me beforehand. If you are sick, please notify me as soon as possible. Your absence from more than three classes may affect your final grade. Every three times you come to class late or leave early without talking to me first will also count as an unexcused absence.

Office Hours:

Students are always welcome in my office. My office hours are times that I have set aside specifically to talk with you – not only about class and assignments, but also about life at Moravian, about something fun and exciting you’ve done, or whatever. Make use of them. I realize that for some of us my posted office hours just won’t work, so I’m also available by appointment: jrbl@moravian.edu.

Other Resources:
• When working on written assignments, I strongly encourage you to take advantage of the help available through appointment at the Writing Center (2nd fl, Zinzendorf). For more information, visit its website at: http://home.moravian.edu/public/eng/writingCenter/appointments.htm

• Similarly, the librarians in Reeves are very resourceful. Make it a habit of consulting with them when research questions arise. The library webpage (http://home.moravian.edu/public/reeves) is an excellent resource, offering live online help and research guides.

• The Learning Services Office (1307 Main St., 861-1510) provides many services to help you achieve academic success: http://home.moravian.edu/public/stusvc/learning/.

• Another important resource that provides help with the demands of college life is The Counseling Center (also at 1307 Main St., 861-1510): http://home.moravian.edu/public/stusvc/counseling/.

• Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact the Learning Services Office (1307 Main St., 861-1510) as soon as possible to enhance the likelihood that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion.

Academic Honesty:

Plagiarism, intentionally representing someone else's work as your own, is a breach of personal integrity and a violation of the College's Academic Honesty Policy: see pp. 26-31 in the Student Handbook or consult http://www.moravian.edu/studentLife/handbook/academic2.htm Read this policy in its entirety. I take the provisions of the Academic Honesty Policy very seriously and am obliged to report any suspected cases of plagiarism, the consequences of which may be failure, suspension, or dismissal from the College. If you plagiarize, you will receive a ‘zero’ on the plagiarized assignment, which will very likely result in your failure for the course. Ignorance of what constitutes plagiarism will not be accepted as an excuse. If at any time you have any questions about documenting sources properly (MLA style) or as to whether or not the aid you are receiving is authorized, don’t hesitate to ask me. The Reeves Library online research tutorial also addresses the issue: http://home.moravian.edu/public/reevestutorial/pages/index.htm

Evaluation:

(The instructor will apply both quantitative and qualitative assessments in determining grades for assignments and for the course. Final grades calculated on 10-pt. scale: 90=A-, 80=B-, etc.)

- Paper 1: Personal Response to Literature.............5%
- Savvy Researcher Project.................................10%
- Paper 2: Argument Analysis paper (HofD).......15%
- Heart of Darkness Group Presentation.............5%
- Paper 3: Research paper (Tempest)...............25%
- Proposal for Research paper............................5%
- Tempest Group Presentation...........................5%
- Paper 4: Poetry explication............................15%
- Oral Presentation on Poetry...........................5%
- Informal Writing and Class Participation..........10%

You must complete all these requirements in order to be eligible to pass the course.
