COURSE DESCRIPTION
This slide lecture course is an introduction to the visual arts in Renaissance and post-Renaissance Europe. It focuses on the development of style (Early and High Renaissance, Mannerism, and Baroque) by examining a substantial body of material from, primarily, the 15th to the 17th centuries. Major artists discussed are, in Italy, Leonardo, Raphael, Michelangelo, and Caravaggio; and, in the North, Duerer, Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt. Also included are El Greco, Velasquez and Poussin. Issues of patronage and gender are examined in historical context. Art museum and gallery visits are required.

GOALS
Students will learn to identify a core set of masterpieces from each period, as well as describe the compositional styles of individual works.

REQUIRED TEXTS for purchase
1) Peter and Linda Murray, The Art of the Renaissance
2) Linda Murray, The High Renaissance and Mannerism
3) Germain Bazin, Baroque and Rococo
4) Elizabeth Holt, A Documentary History of Art, vol. II

RECOMMENDED:
Heinrich Woelfflin, Principles of Art History: The Problem of the Development of Style in Later Art

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
• Students must attend all classes and bring the appropriate required text to each class. After the second unexcused absence, final grade will be dropped by one full letter. After the fourth unexcused absence, student will receive a failing final grade.
• One short paper based on the field trip to New York; one research paper; mid-term; and final exam.
• A field trip to New York City (details to be announced)

Grading: 45% is determined by written work; 45% by exams; and 10% by attendance. (Short paper, 15%; research paper, 30%; mid-term, 20%; and final, 25%)
Papers: 1) One short paper, or “Looking Assignment,” 4-5 pages in length, comparing works of art from the museum visit to New York; 2) One research paper, 12-15 pages in length, using print sources in Reeves Library. All written work must be completed in order to receive a grade. Papers are due at the beginning of class; papers handed in at the end of class or any time after will be marked down for lateness (minus one grade per class meeting).

You will be instructed to sign an honesty statement when you sit your exams. Cheating on exams or quizzes will not be tolerated and will result in a 0 or F. Written assignments are designed to engage students with material covered in class through visual participation and personal reaction. Papers must be your own thoughts, impressions and reactions. The Internet can provide valuable source material, but you must participate by visiting the artwork yourself, in person, and offering your own viewpoint. Plagiarism in any form will not be tolerated. As you write your papers be aware that faculty are familiar with art websites, such as the Metropolitan Museum.

Disability: Students who wish to request accommodations in this class for a disability should contact Mr. Joe Kempfer, Assistant Director of Learning Services for Disability Support, 1307 Main Street (extension 1510). Accommodations cannot be provided until authorization is received from the office of Learning Services.
